84 year-old's sudden death, which shook the town earlier this month.

Following the formal identification of the World War Two veteran, police have said the death is no longer being treated as suspicious.

The cause and exact nature of the wounds that killed Mr Kenely are due to be released shortly.

A coroner is due to rule on the cause of death with a report clarifying the circumstances surrounding the incident.

DCI John Crossland said in a statement: "A thorough investigation into the circumstances of

One Not To Miss

MOBILE Foot Health Practitioner Jo Love has recently made a move into the world of foot care after years spent satisfying her green fingers in gardens and nurseries.

Jo lives in Beaminster with her three children Mo, 14 Toby, 10, and Hazel four and their dog

Although she misses gardening Jo made the move into foot care, with her business "Jo Loves feet", to give her more energy and time for her children.

Jo is coming up to her 10th year in Dorset having spent time in Sussex, Brighton and Norfolk. In the future she hopes to move into reflexology and open her own clinic in Beaminster.

■ WHAT do you like most about Beaminster?

It's a beautiful place. I love the environment but most of all I like the community spirit. The people are absolutely brilliant. This evening I'm going off to do more training to be an assistant at the community pool. I have overcome my fear of water and now I'm doing that. I did the adult swimming lessons there last year because I lost my nerve after I nearly drowned as a child. Judith took me under her wing and chucked me in the deep end and she has worked really well with me. It's changed the way I've looked at swimming completely.

■ WHAT would you like to change?

I'd like to see more variety in the shops. I'd like that part of Beaminster to be more successful. I like what's here but I'd like to see more of it.

■ Why did you make the transition from flowers to feet?

I like getting other people to feel better about themselves foot wise. I can walk away feeling happier that they feel better with a feeling that I've done something that puts back into the community.

■ ARE there any parallels between plants and feet? Gardening is a relaxation thing, and if you touch somebody's feet they just zone out. There is more control on people's feet than there is on gardens.

■ HAVE you always been interested in feet?

I've never found them repulsive. We all have them and you've got to look after them because you really notice when you hurt your foot, as soon as you stub your toe or tread on something. If you give someone a foot massage then they feel so much better, I like a good foot massage and even my kids give me a massage, it makes me a completely different person.

HOW important is foot care?

Extremely important, if you look after you feet then you can get about, if you don't then you end up isolated. Regular foot care is preventative, if you want to run on the beach or go out hill walking then you rely on them so much but you just don't think about it. It's like your hands, if you hurt your hand you can't write, if you break your foot then you're there for months recovering.

■ WHERE do you see yourself in five years time?

I want to open a clinic, probably in Beaminster so people can come to me. I do see myself as having a good regular client base and being well known in the area for what I

■ WHAT would be your dream job?

I would like to do more design work and I would like to have my own tattoo studio, that or something like architecture. I was involved with a self build project in Brighton, designing eco friendly housing. I had loads of fun doing that but it's not something you can do without oodles of money and permission.

■ WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party and why?

Ronnie Barker for definite, he was a fabulously brilliantly funny man, I just think he was the bee's knees. Steve Mc-Queen, I would love to play a game of chess with him like in the Thomas Crown Affair. Marilyn Monroe, I'd love to know what her life was like.

■ WHAT was the last book you read, CD you listened to and film you watched?

I read a book on the Tudor times, a murder mystery called Revelation by C.J.Samson. Music wise I love Muse and Kasabian, that genre of music. I watched the Untouchables recently, a film about gangsters from the 1950s with Sean Connery in it.

Lyme mourns popular boatman

LYME Regis community is mourning the death "a unique" and much loved boatman Ron Bailey, who died in the early hours of Friday after losing a courageous three-year battle with cancer.

Ron was born in Martock on July 31st, 1944 and educated at Yeovil Grammar School

On leaving school Ron joined the army, reaching the rank of Sergeant before leaving to train as an accountant. He later purchased Barlet and Co in Axminster, which he eventually sold and the firm became known as Thomas Westcott.

Many local farmers will have fond memories of Ron sitting behind his desk, puffing on his cigar in a room filled with neat piles of various sets of accounts.

Whilst working as an accountant Ron purchased his first boat, The Josephine Angus. This was the beginning of Ron's love affair with fishing and in 1985 he purchased the Marlies B and took up fishing as a full time occupation. Marlies B was replaced by Shemara.

In 2005 Ron undertook the task of building a new fast boat which he Susie B gave both Ron and his many customers hours of pleasure fishing the waters off Lyme Regis.

In early 2007 Ron was diagnosed with prostate cancer. Never one to give up on anything, Ron planned to work throughout his treatment but owing to complications had to take a year out. Through sheer determination Ron amazed his doctors by returning to work in 2008.

In December 2009 the cancer returned with vengeance and sadly on this occasion Ron was unable to overcome it.

Ron leaves his partner of 15 years Sue, and three children David, Martin and Marlies.

Ron will be greatly missed by both his family and all of his customers... .he was a unique person.

Ron's funeral will be held at Lyme Regis Parish Church on Tuesday, June 6th at 11am. Afterwards friends and family will meet at the Cob from 1pm.

World class organist gives recital in Lyme

PROFESSOR Ian Tracey one of the country's most distinguished organists has agreed to play a recital this Saturday (May 29th), on the newly installed Skrabl organ at St Michael's Parish Church in Lyme Regis.

The concert is being sponsored by A.J. Wakely and Sons Funeral Directors. A video screen will be used to allow the audience a full view of the organist playing.

Tickets are available from the Tourist Information Bureau for £10/ (£5 for children) on 01297 442138 or at the door. Full details can also be seen on the websitewww.lymeregisorganappeal.com

Professor Ian Tracey is one of Britain's best known and most widely respected musicians, having been organist at the monumental Anglican Cathedral in his home town of Liverpool for almost 30 years. His performances there on the famous 'Willis' organ - the largest in the UK - have thrilled the instrument's thousands of fans around the world and met with praise from the critics.

'War-time' concert party to support wounded soldiers

By Philip Evans

A "WAR-TIME" concert party is being staged at Uplyme Village Hall on two evenings next month to raise money for the Help For Heroes charity which supports members of the armed forces who are wounded in action.

The two shows will take the form of the ENSA concert parties which entertained the troops in the Second World War with the audiences being served "a mug or tea and a wad" by natty NAFFI ladies.

The two concerts - on Wednesday, June 23rd and Thursday, June 24th (both starting at 8pm) are being organised by Lyme Regis resident Jean Heppenstall, an experienced voice coach who was very prominent over the years in the various shows staged by the now defunct Community Players, a stage organisation that gave many local performers there first taste of appearing on stage, raising thousand of pounds for community projects.

And in her usual fashion, with great attention to detail, Jean is organising the concerts with military precision.

She has enlisted a number of well-known local stage performers who will present a programme of 31 wellknown war-time songs and monologues, including Pete Ward and Sarah Cross, who will be well known to local audiences. Jack Marshall, aged 94, will be the accompanist for all the songs.

All the old favourites made popular by the forces' darling, Dame Vera Lyn, and Gracie Fields, including "There'll Always Be An England" and "Take Me Back To Dear Old Blighty" will be includded with the audience being encouraged to sing along,

To add to the authenticity of the occasions, the audiences are being encouraged to wear uniforms, badges and medals and they will be served with rock cakes made from a war-time recipe, Jean has recuited a mini-army of cake makers, including a seven year-old local girl.

Tea will be served in mugs, currently being collected. Anyone who can provide a mug (they will be returned) can leave them at the View from offices in St Michael's Business Centre.

Jean decided to organise the concert parties after watching the repatriation of troops on the television.

'You watch these brave young men and women being brought home and you feel so helpless," she said. "I just thought I had to do something and I have received brilliant support from so many people."

Jean said she had already been promised supplies of tea and sugar, postage stamps to help defray the administration costs and a donation to underwite any loss on the second evening.

The event looks like being a great financial success with 100 tickets already sold for the first night and 50 for the second performance. The capacity at Uplyme Village Hall is 150 for each performance.

Margaret Faragher has been a great help with the forward sale of tickets and the Making Waves hairdressers in Silver Street, the unofficial HQ for the concert parties, have also been of a great help.

Tickets (costing £8) are available from Mrs Faragher on 01297 443724) or from Maving Waves, Martin Diplock estate agents in Broad Street and Uplyme Post

Free transport is alaso being laid on. Those interested should contact Jean Heppenstall on 01297 442185.

Said Jean: "We everyone to pack up their troubles, smile, smile, smile and have a happy evening with us raising money for a very worthwhile cause.

Showcasing the talent of Lyme

£350 IN PRIZE MONEY ON OFFER

THE search is on for Lyme's most talented stage perform-

Local entertainers over the age of 14 who live within a five-mile radius of the town are being invited to enter "Lyme's Got Talent", to be staged as part of the annual Regatta and Carnival.

Auditions are being held at the Woodmead Halls on three Sunday mornings in June (13th, 20th and 27th), starting

The top 12 acts will then go forward to the final to be staged on Tuesday, August 10th as part of the Regatta and Carnival week.

The 12 finalists will be narrowed down to three by a panel of judges (to be announced) with the final winners being selected by the audience.

The talent show is being staged at no cost to the regatta and carnival by Philip Evans Media with all profits going to carnival funds.

Prize-money totalling £350 will be on offer and the winning act will also appear on Lyme TV.

The winner will receive £200 in cash with ther runner-up getting £100 and the third place performer receiving £50.

All forms of variety acts will be welcome, with the exception of animal acts due to the restrictions of the Woodmead halls stage. These could include singing acts (solo and groups), musicians, comics, dancers, dance troupes and impressionists.

Those attending the auditions will be be asked to give a flavour of their act.

Entry forms for the auditions are available from the View From Offices in St Michael's Business Centre in Church Street or by telephoning Alison King on 01297 446057 (Monday to Friday (9 am to 3

Commented regatta and carnival chairman Teresa Evemy: "This will be another unusual event for regatta week and will provide a showcase for all the talented performers in and around Lyme Regis."

Tickets for the finals will go on sale at £6 each nearer the date.

Plans to extend town's conservation area

VIEWS of Lyme Regis residents are being sought over the possible extension of the town's conservation area.

West Dorset District Council, the planning authority, is carrying out public consultation over their intention to introduce a satellite conservation area at the town cemetery in Charmouth Road and boundary extensions to include parts of Pound Road and Sidmouth Road as well as the area around St Michael's Business Centre in Church Street.

by Philip Evans

The district council has produced a draft Lyme Regis Conservation Area Appraisal (Review 2010) document which has been distributed to Lyme Regis Town Council and local organisations, including the Lyme Regis Development Trust, Lyme Regis Society, Lyme Regis and Charmouth Hotels and Restaurants Association and Lyme Regis Museum.

The document, including a comments form, is available from the Tourist Information Centre and Lyme Regis Library.

District council officials will also be in attendance at the Lyme Regis Baptist Church in Silver Street on Tuesday, June 1st, starting at 8.30 am and finishing at 7 pm, to answer questions on the proposed changes.

Information is also included on the www.dorsetforyou.com website.

Conservation areas are designated as having special architectural or historic interest which legislation dictates have to be preserved or enhanced.

Planning decisions, therefore, have to be based on a thorough understanding of the conservation area's character in order to effectively conserve the area's special interest.

Views have to be sent to the district council by June 30th and the report will go before the next relevant committee of Lyme Regis Town Council in the next cycle of meetings.

■ RETIRING headmaster Chris Tozer conducts the St Michael's School choir, suplemented by other local singers and with Mrs Elaine kendrick on the piano, at his last service at St Michael's Parish Church on Sunday

Woodbury Down under review again

WEST Dorset District Council is carrying out a review of all options for delivering housing and employment over the next 15 to 20 years, including the Woodbury Down site off Charmouth Road in Lyme Regis.

District officials were recently spotted in the fields which Lyme Forward submitted for the Strategic Housing Land Availabilty Assessment.

Concerned neighbours have been informed that the district council is working on a core startegy for West Dorset to replace the existing Local Plan.

The next stage will be to consult with all affected parties during September/October.

Local policy team leader Jo Witherden has assured neighbours that no decisions have yet been made and full consultation will take place.

Lyme Forward consider the Woodberry Down site to be key in the provision of affordable housing in the town.

Planners and housing associations are convinced that the only funding which will be available in future will be from planning gain.

The government subsidy has "run dry" so effective affordable housing in Lyme will be delivered only through a commercial development big enough to warrant inclusion of a large affordable element.

The inclusion of mixed uses for Woodbury Down included in the last Local Plan in 2005 met widespread opposition from the town council and Lyme Regis Society as well over 80 local residents and went to a local inquiry.

The Inspector decided that half the site could not be developed.

Headmaster's last church service

CHRIS Tozer, retiring headmaster of St Michael's Church of England Primary School, attended his last service at St Michael's Parish Church on Sunday.

Mr Tozer, who lives in Dorchester, is retiring at the end of the summer term after 19 years at the Kings Way school.

The service was conducted by the Reverend Keith Vivian and featured the school choir, augmented by other local singers. In a tribute to Mr Tozer, the Reverend Vivian described the relationship between the school and church, as "wonderful" and he wished the headmaster happiness for the future.

The Reverend Vivian also welcomed the new Vicar of Lyme Regis, the Reverend Jane Skinner, who takes up her duties next month.

Readers were given by the Reverend Skinner and

Mark takes a 'mighty leap' to home brewing

By Paul Crompton

A LYME Regis man who was forced to re-evaluate his life after being threatened with redundancy is hoping to turn his career plan B into plan A with the launch of his own beer.

Mark Jenkin is already pulling the first pints from his garden shed microbrewery named Mighty Hop just a year after coming up with the idea to buffer himself against losing his job.

With support from his friends and family, which including taste testing the original recipe beers, Mark is hoping to get his bottled beers a permanent fixture in and around the town.

Mr Jenkin said: "I've been doing home brews of wine and beer for several years which was very nice, that's fine, its all good but last summer had a bit of a shock with the threat of redundancy and so I thought what will I do.

"I have to have a plan B so this is my plan B and it will become my plan A when it gets a head of steam.

"We are not quite ready yet. What we do is test brews to check the equipment because we cannot just say we are ready; we have to make sure the equipment works first."

Through a process of experimentation with flavours, and using recipes from books and internet, Mr Jenkin is hoping his home brewing experience will be a winner.

His four beers – an IPA, Ginger Beer, Golden Bitter and a Porter (dark bitter) - are unfiltered so it conditions in the bottle and will cost £2.25 each.

The brewing process has been very organic since the initial idea last July.

"You see what you like and what other people like and just develop it from there," Mr Jenkin says of his philosophy for making beer.

Mr Jenkin admits his life

■ GARDEN SHED BREWER: Mark Jenkin relaxes outside his home microbrewery Mighty Hop enjoying a glass of his Ginger Ale which should be on general sale very soon as a brewer is "quite different" from his day job as a project manager for an international telecom company but is looking forward to the new experience.

"I'd like to thank everyone who has supported me by drinking the beer, helping with the web-site and design," he said.

The beer should be in local shops within the next few months, with Mark hoping to enter his drinks in local beer festivals.

■ IT'S ALL IN THE BREWING: Mark Jenkin is hoping to launch four bottled beers in Lyme Regis from his microbrewery Mighty Hop

Win 12 bottles of Mighty Hop beer

HERE'S the chance for a View from Lyme Regis reader to win 12 bottles of Mighty Hop beer.

Home brewer Mark Jenkins' has yet to find a name for one of his beers, a dark bitter porter ale.

He's asking our readers to come up with a suitable name. Answers please on a postcard or letter marked Mighty Hop Competition, View from Lyme Regis, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis. Closing date: Friday, June 11th. The editor's decision is final.

Big night for the Pool League players

POOL players in Lyme Regis celebrated another successful season at their finals and presentation evening at the Rock Point Inn.

It was a successful night for the Old Cobbies, from the Cobb Arms, who won the league championship and were also beer leg winners.

For the first time ever two teams finished on the same number of points at the top of the table - Old Cobbies and Hat Tricks. Cobbies got the overall vote from team captains for winning the most games.

Old Cobbies team member Andrew Peadon won the Captain's Cup and was also runners-up in the singles. Tim Mayers and John McClements won the Pairs competition and Tim Mayers also shared the Highest Singles (consis-

Table made of dung

TWO Lyme Regis museum exhibits, a coprolite table and a sailor's boot, are the intriguing subjects of talks today (Wednesday) – two further in the series 'The History of Lyme in Ten Objects'.

The sailor's boot, which saved the lives of 41 men on board the torpedoed World War I battleship HMS Formidable is, for speaker Jack Thomas, the most important item in the museum.

And the table (pictured) – inlaid with polished coprolites (another name for fossilised dinosaur dung) – once belonged to famous palaeontologist William Buckland, a friend of Mary Anning.

Like all inlaid furniture, there is an urge to touch it, and museum curator Mary Godwin says school-children who visit the museum certainly have that urge. "So I encourage them," she says, "— and then I tell them it's made of poo.' Geologist Richard Bull presents the table's fascinating history.

Major 'explosion' in Charmouth

Thistlegate House residential home in Charmouth sparked a major exercise for local firefighters.

One major obstacle facing the fire crews was the lack of water with the nearest hydrant being half a mile away.

Intense smoke provided by a smoke machine also made the search and rescue exercise realtistic.

The exercise was also experience for Thistlegate staff who had to deal with making a 999 call, evacuating the care home, dealing with fire crews and role playing.

A spokesperson for Dorset Fire Brigade said: "This was a great opportunity for the care home staff to call the fire service for real, to practice their evacuation procedures and to gain experience in dealing with fire personnel on the telephone and in person.

'It was also good practice for the crews to carry out a 'real' rescue in a large residential home.

Mayor to open Town Mill Malthouse

THE restored Town Mill Malthouse in Lyme Regis will be officially opened by the Mayor, Councillor Michaela Ellis, on Saturday, June 5th.

The building will then be available for hire by organisations and members of the public.

The main part of the restored building is now a multi-functional space which can be used for events of all kinds such as meetings, exhibitions, rehearsals and wedding receptions.

Ån office above has already been let and the old battery store at the front is already being occupied the recently opened Town Mill Brewery.

The Malthouse has a fascinating history. It was probably built in the late 1600s to dry and roast barley for brewing beer. Everyone drank beer then because the water supply was so impure.

A major fire at the Malthouse in 1947 ended Lyme's independent electricity generation and forced it to connect to the national grid. The following year electricity was nationalised and Malthouse was taken over by the South Western Electricity Board. The eastern end became the town's substation where high voltage electricity from the grid was transformed down to a lower level suitable for the county of Dorset.

The remaining building became the subject of a very long running legal dispute, which culminated in 2007 when the occupier left the premises.

Western Power Distribution (WPD), the owners, offered the whole building, other than the substation, to the Town Mill Trust.

The South West of England Regional Development Agency (SWRDA) offered a generous grant to purchase and part restore the building, provided the trust raised 50 per cent. The trustees took on this challenge and are close to their target, thanks to the generosity of local individuals and organisations:

'Wonderful' result at pre-school auction

ON behalf of myself, the staff and children of Lyme Regis pre-school we would like to thank all the traders and businesses of Lyme Regis, family, friends and parents for all the lovely things they donated for our auction on May 15th at the Ship Inn.

I would like to thank Dave, Mary and Maxine from the Ship Inn for all their help and buying lots of things.

Also to Stuart Fowler who did a wonderful job of auctioning all the great things we had.

I would like to thank my husband Mike for all his help and most of all, all the people that came on the night and raised a massive £1,788 pounds.

It was hard work but well worth it to achieve this wonderful amount.

Thanks to everyone.

Marathon man stops at Lyme

A SCHOOLTEACHER stopped in Lyme Regis on his epic fundraising 20 marathons in 20 days for a well-earned dip in the sea and fish and chip dinner.

Tom Donahoe, 42, from Anton Junior School in Hampshire was on day five of his 505 mile run to raise £150,000 for a new music, drama and dance studio for the school.

Mr Donahoe, pictured with his wife Carolyn who helped him devise the marathon, was donated a room for the night at the Mariners Hotel to help him recuperate.

Mr Donahoe said he wanted to stop at Lyme Regis because it was "so beautiful" but admitted the going was tough due to the hot weather the county had been experiencing.

Pupils at the school have been showing support by running 20-30 minutes everyday during Mr Donahoe's run in a bid to complete a marathon themselves.

Luke, 20, starts his own IT business

A 20 year-old man has started his own business in Lyme Regis offering support and services in IT.

Luke said: "Before I started the business, I was doing the same thing, working for Double Design at LymeNet. I had a nice wage, but Laurence, who was my business partner was generating a lot of money from his websites. so I decided I had to make my own money. I had to start making my own in-

By Hannah Penney

Luke's business involves helping older people who live in this area, teaching them basic IT skills such as writing emails and trawling the web.

He also helps with hardware and software maintenance, fixing internet connection problems and helping elderly people setting up email accounts.

Luke said: "I teach them simple things. Nearly everybody I've helped has usually come back to me.

'The most common problems I have to deal with are people who are unaware of viruses and they don't have the latest up to date anti-virus protection, so they leave it too late to get help and I have to sort it for them.

"I don't really specialise in anything in particular, before I've helped with mobile phones and tills, so it's not only computers.

"The advice that I would give to someone who wanted to get into the IT business would be to go on some IT courses, and keep up-to-date with everything that's happening in the IT industry, also experience is a good help."

All profits from Luke's business will go back into LymeNet, which goes to funding the local community and learning centre.

Luke said: "I've had a lot of support from LymeNet, and the Development Trust, which I'm grateful for. Before, most of my income was from LymeNet, but now I help to fund it."

Before he started Lymetec, Luke was working with Laurence Madill, for Double Design, which runs the Lyme tourism website. Laurence helped him gain experience. He now helps with IT matters at Lyme Regis Town Council as well as Beaminster Town

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS!

YME Regis Football Club have made history in their 125th season by winning the Perry Street treble for the first time.

The Seasiders' first team recently clinched the Perry Street Premier division for the fifth time and have also won the League's two main trophies, the Coronation Cup and the Challenge Cup.

The Premiership trophy will be presented to captain Adam Caddy, one of the youngest skipers in the Perry Street League at 21, on Saturday when the Seasiders meet South Petherton at the Davey Fort on Saturday (kick-off 2pm).

It is expected that the trophy will be presented by League chairman Jim Jowatt.

To complete a brilliant season Lyme Reserves have already won the Arthur Gage Cup and are in the final of the Daisy Hutchings Cup at Perry Street tomorrow (Thursday), kick-off 6.15 pm.

One of the club' most successful seasons ever will be celebrated in style at the annual dinner at Lyme Regis Golf Club on Friday, June 9th when the trophies will be presented by club patron, the former England, Everton and West ham stroker Tony Cottee.

Guildhall changes are afoot

TTENDING Hasi well and mayor-making ceremony in Lyme Regis, I could not help wondering how long this ancient ceremony will survive the wind of change which I think will be sweeping through the Guildhall in the coming years.

There has already been talk of appointing a leader to chair the council and downgrading the role of mayor to that of a ceremonial one only.

Even town clerk Mike Lewis referred, slightly tongue-incheek that that the curimcumbent, Michaela Ellis, could be the last in a long line of mayors who also act as council chairman.

Although he was not present at the mayormaking, Councillor Darvl Turner has, I am told, an agenda of which would like to implement at the Guildhall.

Change is inevitable in today's current climate in local government and, of course, change has to happen.

But I hope it will not be change for change's

I have already made my views on the possibility of appointing a council leader and dumbing down the role of mayor very clear.

Inevitably it will lead to the politicising of the town council.

At the same time as the Lyme ceremony, mayor-making happening in Bridport where eight out of the 18 councillors boycotted the meeting.

This year a Tory councillor was put up but the Lib Dems voted him down and the job went to Geoff Ackerman, a lovely man but someone who has held the job five times before!

the usual pleasant reception at the Pilot Boat where much of the talk among councillors was the view that there might not be quite so many of the long-serving members standing down at next year's elections.

Perhaps there will not be so many changes after all.

There will, I am sure, be many more occasions before the end of the summer term when the popular headmaster receives more accolades.

When Chris Tozer joined St Michael's 19 years ago it had a bit of a reputation. It seemed that more and more Lyme people were choosing the primary schools in Uplyme and Charmouth rather than the Chris changed all that over the years with St Michael's now enjoying a fine reputation. I suspect it took a great deal of time and effort.

He has always seemed to me to be a teacher who actually liked the kids he was teaching and you only have to look at the pupils' faces to see what they think of their headteacher when he's speaking.

Memories of a man who loved Lyme

I WAS saddened to hear this week of the death of former Lyme Regis resident John Oldfield.

John came to Lyme to open a bookmakers in Coombe Street with his brother-in-law, the late Ron Dixon.

But John's real passion in life was photography and the history of Lyme, and he built up a signifcant collection of photos of old Lyme.

He and his lovely wife Iris emigrated to South Africa some years ago and I well remember John calling round at my house to say goodbye. He gave me the distinct feeling that he didn't really want to leave his beloved Lyme.

John was a remarkably generous man and before he left for South Africa he gave me a fishing rod for my son Darren.

John worked for me as a photographer when I edited the Midweek Herald back in the 1980s and one of our most exciting assignments was covering the visit to Lyme Regis by Princess Alexandra as part of the the town's Charter 700 celebrations. I was deputy mayor at the time.

We brought out a special overnight edition which went on sale the following morning with extensive photographic coverage of Lyme's special day. We beat all the other papers hands down and I distinctly remember celebreating with John over a few pints at the Cobb Arms where the first papers were delivered at around mid-

I lost touch with John after he and Iris emigrated. But when I was working in South Africa in the early 1990s I always looked up his name in the telephone directories. I was staving at the Royal Hotel in Durban and with thought might look him up. I J.Oldfield in the direcand called the number. "Can I speak to John?," I asked and a female voice replied: "Is Pip that Evans?" lt was Iris and we all met up that evening for a dinner, reminiscing about Lyme thousands of miles a way. When we parted company John shed a tear. He knew we would never meet again.

John and Iris later moved to Australia, where their son Kenny, lives, because it became too dangerous liv-

Kenny, a great friend of Lyme fisherman Tax Williams, visited Lyme last year. He e-mailed this week to let me know of John's death as he knew we both had a great deal of respect for each other.

John and Iris lived in Forster/Tuncary, about three hours drive north of Sydney, John was diagnosed with liver cancer last November, He was 80.

Kenny and his wife Cathy run holiday cottages in Green Point, a very beautiful part of New South Wales.

Minor Repairs to Complete Roof

leadwork ltd

How do I choose a roofing contractor?

One of the best places to start looking is in the NFRC (National Federation of Building Contractors) Directory which lists proven property professionals from all over the UK. Always make sure the roofing contractor you hire is regtered.

Weeding out the cowboys, or how to spot a dishonest contractor.

It is every homeowner's nightmare. Hiring a contractor that seemed capable on first impression, only to have the make a mess of your beautiful home through lack of skill!

Ask the prospective contractor for a portfolio of references and photo's of their work. Any good contractor will be happy to show you these. If they're not, it's probably best to look elsewhere.

Pricing and costs

Pricing for roofing jobs depends on the extent and complexity of the job and on the materials used. Always consider written quotes (never verbal) before settling on a roofing contractor. Most professionals will produce a quote within 2 or 3 days.

Questions to ask your roofing contractor

1. Are you a registered trade member?

We recommend that your contractor be registered in a national trade association, such as the NFRC.

2. Does the company carry insurance?

Workers compensation and liability insurance to be specific, if the worker is hurt, and the roofing contractor does not have insurance, then the home owner is liable. Ask to have current certification sent to you. Do not accept the roofing contractor at their word. They may carry health, life and car insurance. Bland assurances of health coverage may refer to these. (Does your roofer's insurance cover him if he is not qualified?)

3. What is the company's workman ship warranty?

Some warranties are for one year, some are for longer. The length of a roofing contractors warranty is not really as important as customer referrals. Most workmanship errors will be found within the first year, probably the first good storm. The reason this question is important is most roofing contractors will warranty the workmanship, and the manufacturer will warranty the product as long as it is installed correctly. Make sure you understand warranties.

4. Does your roofer carry out risk assessments and method statements for each job by a qualified site supervisor?

What is a risk assessment?

i) Identify the hazard

- ii) Decide who may be harmed and how iii)Evaluate the risk and decide on some precautions
- iv)Record your findings
- v) Review your assessment and update if necessary
- 5. Is your roofer trained to work at heights?
- 6. Do your roofers have an NVQ or are trained/approved in the job to be carried out?

Although retirement looms Douglas will continue to support his town

Lresettlement courses prior to discharge from the army in May 1988, Douglas decided he wanted to be his own boss, and set up his own painting, decorating and maintenance business.

He had purchased a house in Fleet Street. Beaminster and was soon enjoying life in the town that gave him so many fond memo-

At the first opportunity, he contested, and won, a place on the town council in 1989.

Following his introduction into Freemasonry, whilst in the army, he had joined the Beaminster Manor Lodge just prior to his

He also enjoyed a drink in his local the Greyhound, where he had found it amusing when on leave from the army to hear local Freemasons talking, but they did not realise he knew what they were talking about.

Douglas doesn't hide the fact that he is a

THIS week we conclude our profile of DOUGLAS BEAZER. After spending 24-years in the army, Douglas returned to his home town of Beaminster where he vowed to give something back to the community. He talks to STUART BROOM about life in "civvy street".

He said: "People believe it to be a secret society, but it is far from that, and we do a lot of good work for charities and other organisations."

Chairman in 1993 and 2000, and secretary for five years until 2009, he describes the organisations not as a secret society but "a society with secrets"

It was also the Greyhound where Douglas found romance, for the landlady was none other than Lynda, the daughter of the couple who ran the White House pub in Gillingham in Kent which he used to frequent when stationed there some ten years ear-

"I guess we must have seen each other then without realising that later in life we would meet again and marry," said Douglas.

After Lynda had parted from her first husband they got friendly, but it was a children's sports day in 1990 that love blossomed.

"Brian Page asked me to help with the announcements as they were short," he said.

"Lynda was there with her daughter Dawn, and I suggested over the PA that she might like to take part in the sack race, and later invite me for a cup of tea! Our friendship developed from there, and after I had sought and received approval from Dawn, I proposed to Lynda and we were married on August 31st,

Unfortunately work was not going so well. The recession was biting hard, and Douglas was forced to wind up his business and seek work elsewhere. He worked for a Bridport plumber for a short while before being made redundant and out of work for seven months.

However, help was around the corner in the shape of Geoff Pattemore who gave him a job driving his HGV's around the countryside collecting

He said: "We are very grateful to Geoff. I was desperate as it looked like I would have to sell our home, and he came up with a job just when I

Having been an active member of the Royal British Legion, Douglas ioined the local branch where he became parade marshal, a job he held for 15 years until he gave up four-years-ago.

One of the things Douglas initiated in the job was to ensure that the vounger association's. such as the cubs, scouts, brownies and guides, had seats in church.

"I noticed that because the youngsters are at the back of the parade, there were no seats left when they got into church, and made sure thereafter that some were allocated," said Douglas, "It is important that the young people are involved; they are an integral part of the event."

He also held the post of treasurer for ten years.

After three years with Pattemore's, Douglas spent another three with local plumber Newman's before joining Yeovil College as a Technical Support Engineer in 1997, a post he still holds. He is now in his second four-year term as a governor at the college having been elected in Having been interested in model railways as a child, Douglas put it to one side whilst in the army, but on his return to Beaminster became involved with the Bridport & District Model Railway Club. He has held several offices over the years including ten years as chairman, and is the current press officer.

He said: "We meet on a regular basis, and I really enjoy meeting likeminded people and chatting with them.'

At 62-years-old Douglas is looking towards retirement, and last year retired from another organisation that has beneenthusiasm and expertise, the Melplash Show.

"I became involved around 1984 when Jim Bingham asked me to give him a hand with the show layout," he said. "I took over responsibility for the roadside signage when he retired and did that for 15-years. Then, with the onset of health and safety, I became the show's safety officer, which I did for ten years before retiring last year."

Douglas was honoured at last year's show with the award of the President's Cup for his 25vears service.

However, it is dedication to Beaminster Town Council that he is probablv best known, something which he intends to continue if elected.

Once again he has held all the major offices and been the council's representative on other local bodies. It culminated in him being elected chairman in 2007, a two year post, something Douglas is immensely proud of holding.

"I feel very proud and privileged to have represented the town as their chairman, and Lynda has been brilliant and very supportive during the period." he said.

"We received about 180 invitations to events both in Beaminster and in Dorset and the fringe areas of Somerset and Devon and attended over half of them.

"My one criticism is that the chairman was not invited to that many events in Beaminster, which is disappointing as I believe it can only do good by cementing relationships locally.'

Douglas and Lynda had such a good time in their roles that he didn't seek re-election at the end of his term.

He said: "We had such a brilliant time; it was such an interesting and rewarding job that we wanted someone else to have the same opportu-

It is obvious that Douglas and Lynda are very committed to each other and they intend to enjoy their retirement.

"We both enjoy our home, the garden and our own company," said Douglas. "We have a busy and varied circle of friends, and with Lynda enjoying cooking, we entertain quite a lot. We also hope to have time to research our family histories.

Doug is also a member of the Coldstream Guards Association and has just joined the Society of Dorset Men.

In conclusion Douglas said: "Whilst I have stood down from being involved in a number of organisations, it does not mean I have shunned my community responsibilities and intend to continue being involved in Beaminster.'

Marvellous kitchen makeovers! Double Grammy winner Lekan at Festival comedy night s Dorchester Festival gets underway this weekend, hundreds of performers and thousands of festival goers will be flocking to the county town for five days of extraordinary African-themed events.

Pulsating rhythms will echo through the streets as singers, dancers and spectacular street performers bring the town alive on Saturday morning, followed by a grand parade with hundreds of children in stunning animal head-dresses make their way past the African street market to Borough Gardens.

While singers and poets and performers continue through the afternoon at Town Mill Bakery, the focus moves to the Gardens where Afro Dance Group Grupo Lokito kick off a vibrant mixture of music, dance and performance. The spectacular Black Eagles who learned their acrobatic skills on the streets of Dar-es-Salaam make a special appearance, along with a group of gorillas and their intrepid comic explorer.

Sultry belly dancers, storytellers, street performers all join in as the day comes to a close with a headline performance at the Corn Exchange by the man who single handedly ignited the African music revolution in Europe when he first appeared at the Womad world music festival - Congolese musician Kanda Bongo Man and his extraordinary soukous band, who will be playing some of the tracks from their electrifying new EP. On Sunday, the Festival in the gardens moves into a more chilled out phase with music, storytelling and some cutting edge small scale theatre, before a special talk in the Corn Exchange by author Salley Vickers who will be talking about her new novel Dancing Backwards - a recent Radio 4 Book at Bedtime.

Headlining Saturday night is comedy sensation Gina Yashere at Herrison Hall, Charlton Down with a late addi-tion to the programme - a stunning 45 minute set from double grammy award winner Lekan Babalola's Afro beat trio. Lekan's workshop on the Roots of the Blues had to be postponed to a later date - but we've managed to squeeze a set from his band into the start of our comedy night - it should be amazing," said artist director Sharon Hayden.

"As Gina is of Nigerian descent we thought it would make her feel at home to have a Nigerian musician playing be-fore her." The trio, who fuse African and English folk music, are Lekan on percussion, Kate Luxmoore on clarinet and Karen Street on accordian.

On Monday, the Festival showcases a fantastic selection of local bands, as well as a journey through Zimbabwe with the infectious music of Bulawayo. In the Corn Exchange, leading children's theatre company Tell Tale Hearts present their new show for 3-7 year olds, Spacehoppers, before their appearance in the Kindergardens international festival of children's theatre next month.

The weekend wraps up with a chorus workshop and premiere of a new Community Opera, the Cask of Amontillado and the screening on Tuesday of Comrades - the epic story of the Tolpuddle Martyrs filmed in and around Dorchester with many local people appearing as extras. For more, check out www.dorchesterfestival.co.uk.

ud Sweat and Gears is a brand new and exciting cycle shop in the heart of Dorchester with a revolutionary approach to bike sales. The business was started with a Weymouth shop in 1996 by passionate cyclist Andy Leach, the success of which has lead to the expansion to the new site in Great Western House, near Dorchester West Station.

The modern and spacious show room is laid out over 3000sq ft with a massive selection of bike brands like Lapierre, Eddy Merckx, Wilier, Felt and Giant, as well as an amazing range of cycling clothing and accessories. Their state of the art workshop area for cycle repairs offers servicing and maintenance carry out by Cytech qualified staff.

Mud, Sweat and Gears participates in the popular "Cycle To Work" and "Bike To Work" schemes which have grown from a government initiative to promote healthier journeys to work and to reduce environmental pollution, not to mention saving a small fortune on constantly rising fuel prices! If you are thinking of buying a new bike for these reasons, contact the store for details, in some cases you could save up to 50% on the cost of a new bike and equipment.

Mud, Sweat and Gears caters of cyclists or all ages and abilities. Visit the new store today and take in the relaxed, cycling club style atmosphere. You will find comfortable seating, hot and cold drinks, an information hub for local cycling events and they even screen some inspiring cycling films.

Billy the proprietor saw this as a great opportunity to offer his customers a unique dining experience in Dorchester and soon obained the next-door building that had previously been operating s a model car shop.

Billy's vision was to offer his customers the chance to pick fresh fish from the counter and watch from their tables as it was filleted ind cooked before them whilst they chatted with the chefs so as o learn the art and also mention personal preferences, tastes or dietary requirements.

The restaurant that Billy created now seats 36 and more if the venue is booked for private buffet parties. The business also has been known to cater for wedding parties, birthdays (with karaoke) and also special cook nights where you can (in small groups at a time) actually go into the kitchen and take part in the process of filleting and cooking the fish. There are lunch and evening menus containing all fresh locally

Friendly local feel of the business.

Lunch is served daily from 11-4pm and evening dinner from Thursday to Saturday from 7pm-late but Billy would like to make it clear that if you wish to book a table for an evening that is not advertised as open, the team will gladly open the restaurant to meet your needs. The fish counter is open Monday - Friday between 9-5pm. Billy the Fish is a quirky and unique dining experi-ence that should be tried by all lovers of fresh fish. The style and ayout of the restaurant and kitchen provides a great atmosphere n which to dine as customers and staff can communicate freely.

Shelley the chef would like to recommend trying live lobsters and crabs cooked to order, the stuffed lemon sole with chopped coriander, parsley, capers, lemon zest, and black pepper layered on one fillet and covered with the other or the mixed platter of fish or shellfish. Fabulous food in historic Dorchester Deautiful country town and a great town for shopping destination, but also has an amazing and historical past. Napper's Mite is a significant piece of Dorchester history and is now a café and restaurant. It is set in an original almebauese built in 16f. dur. almshouses built in 1616 duraimsnouses built in 1010 dur-ing the reign of James I. It is lo-cated at 19 South Street, the lower south end of the main pedestrian shopping street in the county market town. This the county market town. This iltitle gem is the oldest building in South Street and one of the oldest still in use in the town. It has links with the novelist Thomas Hardy and with William Barnes, the famous Dorset dialect poet.

At the rear of the Napper's Mite building there is a small proclement of the product of the process.

garden and steps, which backs on to Charles Street. Although the front of the building was re-built in 1842, the Jacobean style can still be recognised in the back elevations with its tall brick chimneys. The History Of Napper's Mite
The Napper, or Napier Mite
Alms Houses in Dorchester's South Street was established by Sir Robert Napier of Middlemarsh in 1615. Built to house "ten aged men" after a town fire in which 300 houses were destroyed, it was one of many charitable foundations established soon after the great fire of Dorchester in 1613. The fire was said to have been seen as a was said to have been seen as a scourge sent from God to chastise the uncharitable popula-tion. His grandson, Gerard Napier, completed the building Sir Robert Napier was a mem-ber of a Scottish family who be-came the Barons of Murchison which is now a suburb of Edinburgh. Crichel in North Dorset remains the home of the de-scendants of the Napiers. Napper's Mite passed through the Napier family to Napier George Sturt who would become the Third Baron Alington.

Clapton and Winwood back together on faith

IN RECENT years, Eric Clapton has made a habit of revisiting his past. He reunited with John Mayall's Bluesbreakers in 2003 and then, two years later, Clapton surprised us all by initiating a Cream reunion with old bandmates Ginger Baker and Jack Bruce. Now, after a series of gigs with Jeff Beck (Clapton's replacement in The Yardbirds back in 1965), he's playing with Stevie Winwood again.

Clapton and Winwood first worked together in the short-lived supergroup Blind Faith. Their one and only eponymous album is a classic from a strong period for British blues-rock records. The band were together for less than a year but still managed to secure their place in rock history, playing to a crowd of more than 100,000 at a free concert in Hyde Park in June Blind Faith was Clapton's first project after Cream and Stevie Winwood was riding high from his tenure in the band Traffic. The band was augmented by Family bass player Ric Grech and Clapton's old colleague Ginger Baker on drums.

However it was just Clapton and Winwood that took to the stage at Wembley Arena last Friday night for this Blind Faith reunion of sorts. Ric Grech died twenty years ago but one can only speculate why Ginger Baker wasn't asked to join the line-up (although Paul Simon's drummer Steve Gadd more than filled the Ginger shaped hole on drums).

The two hour plus show was an amazing demonstration of two old friends never more relaxed or confident of their abilities. Four of the six tracks from Blind Faith were interspersed amongst a mixed bag of tunes from Clapton and Winwood's respective careers, along with an eclectic selection of covers from the likes of Ray Charles, Big Maceo and Freddie King.

But it was the truly electrifying take on Jimi Hendrix's 'Voodoo Chile' (Winwood played keys on the 1968 original) that really blew the audience away. Clapton was "in the zone" for the whole quarter-of-an-hour, and if it's really possible to channel the dead, I'm sure he he had a direct line to Clapton and Winwood shared vocal duties throughout the night, with Stevie's voice sounding as fresh as it did 41 years ago. Whilst Clapton stayed true to the guitar, Stevie swapped and changed between his Stratocaster, Hammond organ and piano.

Traffic classics like 'Dear Mr Fantasy' and 'Pearly Queen' sat well with the likes of Derek and the Dominoes' 'Layla' (which Clapton played "un-

But the die hard Blind Faith fans (rather than the casual concertgoers or Clapton aficionados) got what they came for with stunning takes on 'Can't Find My Way Home' and 'Presence Of The Lord' - real highlights of that classic 1969 album.

I'm not sure what Clapton's next move will be. I can't see a full Yardbirds reunion anytime soon. Maybe a money spinning tour with Cream? Their 2005 reunion comprised of only a handful of dates in New York and London, but any further shows would depend on whether Ginger Baker can handle being in the same room as Jack Bruce for more than five minutes.

Maybe a show with Jeff Beck and Jimmy Page (all three legendary Yardbirds guitarists together)? Now that's a show I'd pay good money to see!

Weymouth appearance

FOLK rock band Mad Dog McRea and "musical magicians" are playing at No 6, King Street, Weymouth at 9pm on Friday, June 4th.

They will be raising funds for the MV Freedom, a boat based in Weymouth and adapted to take elderly and disabled people around the Dorset Coast. The MV Freedom is run by volunteers and funded entirely by donations.

Mad Dog McRea have toured extensively across Europe, USA and Thailand and continually have sell out gigs wherever they go. They are advertised as spontaneous, lively and uniquely orchestrated in their performances.

Tickets are on sale for £8 at venues No 6, The Boot, Kings Arms and the Chapelhay or on the door on June 4th.

BE IT big or small, vegetables or flowers, garden or allotment, there is a great opportunity for any gardeners to earn recognition for their hard work by entering the Melplash Show Garden Competi-

Open to all gardens or allotments within a 12 mile radius of Melplash Church, the Melplash Show are looking not only for the best overall garden or allotment, but awarding prizes for the best small, medium and large ones as well.

The judging takes place on Tuesday, June 15th and Wednesday, June 16th, and you have until Wednesday, June 9th to enter.

Don't be put off thinking your garden is not good enough or big enough. Last year Brian and Jennie Prentice from Litton Cheney won the best overall with their acre of garden split into flowers and shrubs, and vegetables, but equally walking the streets and lanes around Bridport and the surrounding villages there are many wonderful examples of much smaller and spectacular ideas.

As long as you do not more than eight hours a week, you are eligible.

It is not all about colour or design; the judges will be looking at other aspects such as the quality of the crops, flowers or plants, the originality of the layout and planting, and the ingenuity in overcoming local problems.

You will also be invited to receive your awards on show day, August 26th.

So go on, have a go you might well bloom-black American poet to become nationally ac-claimed. He was born in Kentucky to parents who had both been slaves. Luckily for Paul, his mother, who worked as a washerwoman for the family of of Orville and Wilbur Wright (the famous flyers) loved poetry and encouraged her children

Thanks to his mother's efforts he was able to attend the same school as the Wright brothers. He was the only black boy in his class but became editor of the school paper and president of the school's literary society. Brilliant scholar though he was, he had great difficulty finding a job because of his colour. Until he became an established and nationally-known writer he earned a living as a lift operator.

In 1897, at 25 years-of-age, his fame spread across the Atlantic when he visited England to recite his poetry on the London literary circuit. Sadly, he suffered from tuberculosis and after publishing 12 books of poems, 4 books of short stories and 5 novels, he died tragically young - at the age of 33. This is one of his most popular

We wear the mask that grins and lies, It hides our cheeks and shades our eyes, This debt we pay to human guile; With torn and bleeding hearts we smile, And mouth with myriad subtleties.

> Why should the world be overwise, In counting all our tears and sighs? Nay, let them only see us, while We wear the mask.

We smile, but, O great Christ, our cries To thee from tortured souls arise. We sing, but oh the clay is vile Beneath our feet, and long the mile; But let the world dream otherwise, We wear the mask!

A hundred years after Dunbar wrote that poem, a young student in Michigan commented: "There is not a person alive who has not struggled through life's occasional bitterness, hiding their real feelings behind a smile. This poem has helped me through many rough times. As strange as it may sound, it makes life easier knowing that there are others out there also in pain but still grinning and lying to the world, along with me."

to write in a similar vein.

Today I join the mask brigade. There are thousands of them out there, Hiding sorrow behind a smile, Trying to forget, just for a while. "Hello, how are you?" "Just fine", you say, And then off you go on your way, Hoping to get through another day Without the tears getting in the way.

Bridport signwriter

LOCAL signwriter Jemma Thompson is opening an exhibition of her work at Bridport's Electric Palace on Friday, May 28th from 6pm. The exhibition will run until Sunday, June 20th.

After being inspired by Bridport signwriter, Colin Grainger, apprentice to the late George Biles (many of whose beautiful paintings adorn the walls of the Electric Palace), Jemma Thompson trained as a traditional signwriter at South Devon College Torquay and graduated in 2001.

It was during her time at college that Jemma's passion for painted lettering grew and she won an award for "The most outstanding student Signwriter in 30years".

After college she had a few years teaching Arts and Crafts in North Devon and later in Mexico. In 2007, having moved back to Bridport, Jemma set up her studio at St Michaels Trading Estate and became an Apprentice Gilder in Lulworth, (a natural addition to Sign writing or `Street Jewellery` as it is called.)

This is her first ever Solo Exhibition, where she hopes to inspire others to take a closer look at this much underrated Art Form.

Alongside signwork, Jemma has, for the past 20 years been drawing highly realistic animal portrait commissions in water colour pencil and charcoal for people all over the UK and continues to do so today. These animals have life!

'Filete Porteno', a painting style from Buenos Aires, currently inspires her work. 'Filete' expresses and captures the joy of life beautifully in the form of colour, shappictorials, lettering, movement and emotion using Acanthus leaf scrolls, symbols and icons.

Future plans are to continue developing her drawing and brushwork skills, to visit Buenos Aires one day and to set up a course here in the UK with Alfredo Genovese, the Great Argentinian 'Filete' Painter.

Don't miss this chance to see a wonderfully unusual exhibition of Bridport's talented signwriter Jemma Thompson.

Ashes to Ashes co-creator explains finale

ASHES To Ashes co-creator Matthew Graham has explained Friday night's final episode to The Guardian. Speaking about DI Alex Drake has says: "She finds herself between heaven and earth. When we discussed the philosophy behind it we decided that, seeing as how the cosmos was infinite, everybody who dies can afford to go to some kind of purgatory plane that is relevant and significant to them. So we liked the idea that coppers with issues would go to a place designed for coppers. And a coppers' paradise surely has to be The Sweeney, or The French Connection if you're an American."

NEXT month's final series of Big Brother will see Davina McCall become part of the more upbeat "fun and games" theme.

A source told Now magazine: "To celebrate the whole Big Brother history, bosses have decided to theme the last year on fun rather than hell. Producers want to concentrate on fun and games, rather than doom and gloom, and they decided the best way to do that was to give a nod to Davina by actually making her the interior.

"Davina is the essence of Big Brother, so producers will have a few Davina-esque surprises for the contestants. If contestants or viewers think they know what they're in for, they should think again the show will be turned upside down. There's no guarantee that evictions, nominations and tasks will be on the same days they have been before, but the housemates will have the time of their lives."

MARRIED, Single, Other has been given the chop after the series averaged just 4.3 million viewers, despite positive reviews and a Facebook campaign by fans. A spokesperson announced: "ITV won't be commissioning a second series of Married, Single, Other. This has been a tough decision as it brought warmth and wit to our drama slate. The cast, the writing and the production were all super. However, the overall audience fell short of what we need to deliver at 9pm and, regretfully, we've had to make space for new titles."

TUTANKHAMUN'S TREASURE HUNT

ALMOST ninety years ago Howard Carter made a discovery that was to change the face of our understanding of Ancient Egypt. He found the intact tomb of Tutankhamun – often described as the world's greatest discovery of ancient treasure. Children visiting the Tutankhamun Exhibition, in Dorchester, can go on their own Treasure Hunt over the Spring Bank Holiday weekend.

The exhibition is a permanent exhibition celebrating the life and death of Tutankhamun and the unearthing of his tomb in the Valley of the Kings. Tutankhamun is rarely out of the news these days. Most recently DNA and CT-scans were carried out to give a further insight into his family tree and a possible cause of death. The results of these tests are revealed in a new addition to The Exhibition.

Tim Batty, the exhibition's manager, said. "Children explore the innovative Tutankhamun Exhibition and become 'archaeological detectives' in a bid to solve the puzzle of the missing treasure. All those who correctly follow the clues and crack the code can enter a draw with one lucky person each day winning a special prize. The Treasure Hunt is being held throughout the Spring Bank Holiday weekend from Saturday, May 29th to Monday, May 31."

The Tutankhamun Exhibition is situated in the centre of Dorchester, and is close to all the town centre car parks. It is open daily from 9.30am to 5.30pm. For further details phone 01305 269571 or log on to www.tutankhamun-exhibition.co.uk

Inside Kind of Blue

THE legendary 'Kind of Blue' by Miles Davis is the best selling jazz album of all time. This evening is a celebration of this classic album with both a revealing talk and a musical performance.

American saxophonist Frank Griffith has brought together the talented 'Inside Kind of Blue' sextet including the outstanding trumpeter player Byron Wallen. Frank has played regularly with John Dankworth/Cleo Laine band and many of jazz's greatest stars.

The evening starts with journalist Paul Lashmar who will tell the story of 'Kind of Blue' with musical illustrations from the sextet. The second half will be a full performance of 'Kind of Blue' including legendary tunes like 'So What', 'All Blues' and 'Flamenco Sketches'.

Frank Griffith - tenor sax, Byron Wallen - trumpet, Matt Wates - alto sax, Alex Hutton - piano, Luke Steele - bass, Matt Fishwick – drums

The show takes place at Bridport Arts Centre on Thursday, May 27th from 8pm. (Seated) Tickets cost £12, supporters £11, concessions £8, available from http://www.bridport-arts.com/ or the box office on 01308 424 204

FANTASTIC EVENING OF MUSIC FOR FUNDRAISER

A concert evening of wonderful music at the Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, May 28th at 7.30, tickets cost £5.00 from the box office 01308 424204. Featuring two fabulous vocalists: the town's favourite, John Follett, will be joined by Alice Mayne, a new young singer with the voice of an angel. The concert and dance is to raise funds for the Rex Trevett Memorial Fund and the We Love Bridport Arts Centre Building development appeal. Playing a mixture of big band favourites, from Glenn Miller to songs from the shows, the evening is sure to go with a swing.

Margaret Trevett, widow of the band leader Rex Trevett explained, "The Rex Trevett Memorial Fund raises money to encourage young musicians. From paying for youngsters individual instrument lessons to sponsoring the music at the Charter fair we want to help Bridport's children to experience the joy that comes from playing music with other people, and developing their confidence to perform." Lindsay Brooks, the Director of the Bridport Arts Centre, spoke of the Building Fund and explained how necessary every penny is towards the first stages of making the Arts Centre even more welcoming and accessible.

Glenn Bayliss, popular local dance teacher, will be leading the party salsas and showing off his foxtrot and tango with dance partner Helen Deaves. The evening will include a demonstration of the Cha-Cha by Cherry and Malcolm Bonham Lovett, who are formerly winners of many open senior Latin competitions.

People are welcome to come and just enjoy the music or to put on their dancing shoes and try a waltz or quickstep. Everyone is invited to wear a button hole or spring flowers to give the evening a special spring feel.

The girls are back in town...well, the City

CARRIE, Samantha, Charlotte and Miranda return to the big screens this week in the much anticipated "Sex and the City 2" (15).

The film opens with a flashback to the 1980s, when Carrie (Sarah Jessica Parker) met Samantha (Kim Cattrall). It then fast-forwards to two years after the events of the first film.

The story follows the girls as they visit Abu Dhabi as part of Samantha's PR job. The friends deal with a culture clash against the Muslim society, whose style is a little different to what they're used to in New York.

Meanwhile, now-married Carrie bumps into ex-boyfriend Aiden and, after agreeing to a dinner date, ends up kissing him. Should she tell Big?

AMERICAN action film "The Losers" (12A) is based on the comic book series of the same name.

The film follows a group of members of the elite United States Special Forces, who are sent into the Bolivian jungle on a search and destroy mission. After coming under attack, the team are presumed dead and, without passports or money, are stuck in Bolivia.

They are joined by beautiful operative Aisha, who agrees to smuggle them back to the USA, as long as they agree to kill the enemy who attacked them, known as Max, which she describes as a suicide mission.

CINEMA HALF PRICE WHITSUN CHANNEL SAIL ON TALL SHIP PELICAN

The Training Ship Pelican is offering an amazing Whitsun half price offer on a 4 day Channel Voyage aboard the Tall Ship leaving Weymouth on Friday 28 May - returning on Monday 1 June (Bank Holiday Weekend).

The usual price is £399, however the Pelican are reducing this to £199 as a last minute offer. This price includes 4 days aboard, Full Board accommodation and inclusive of all meals. Children must be over 12 years of age and accompanied by an adult. Voyage may include a visit to the Channel Islands and France depending on wind direction and weather conditions.

No sailing experience necessary. Places strictly limited to "first come first served."

The traditional square rigger TS Pelican is privately owned and now newly restored captures the true spirit and soul of a small and elegant clipper designed for adventure. Setting eleven sails as a 'Mainmast Barquentine' make her lively and fast both on and off the wind.

David (Ben) Swain, 2nd Mate said "The half price Whitsun 4 day channel sail provides a fantastic opportunity for individuals to develop their talents and realise their aspirations in an environment of challenge, excitement and teamwork. Absolutely no sailing experience required, you can join in as much or as little as you wish ."

Later this Summer the Pelican will leave Weymouth Harbour on 5th July for the Tall Ships Races. Whitsun Holiday Fun for All!

AT Bridport Leisure Centre they have activities for all ages from babies to grandparents and whether you want to have a go yourself or simply watch the kids taking part, you are sure to find something for everyone. Babies can try out the fantastic Gym Tots classes or brave the water with our Ducklings Swimming session and then for those a little older, they have a Bouncy Castle for those 'Mini Monsters' to burn off some energy and even some Trampolining courses and Messy Arts classes to occupy them. Children can party with Pom-Poms in the Cheerleading class or have a go underwater for the Snorkelling sessions. For parents who want to ensure their childrens safety, there is a 5 day intensive swimming courses where they can teach all children from non-swimmers to those who need an extra bit of help. Of course, whilst the children get fit, Bridport Leisure Centre can also provide the parents with plenty of activities such as modern hi-tech Fitness Suite, Badminton and Squash Courts, Table Tennis and Aerobics and Yoga Classes, so there's no excuse to pile on those pounds! Last but not least the Centre has 2 Swimming pools to entice you with a small Teaching pool for the babies and learners and a Main pool for the older and more serious swimmer. So why not go to Bridport Leisure Centre during the holidays for some fitness and fun for you and the kids. Full details of all activities and the pool opening times can be found on the website www.bridportleisure.com or pick up a leaflet from Reception or just give them a call on 01308 427464.

Whitworth opens studio for Dorset Art Week

IF you missed Terry Whitworth's work at Bridport Arts Centre as part of the exhibition '25 Bridport Painters & Sculptors' there will be the opportunity during Dorset Art Weeks to see his work. Having been part of this event in previous years this is the first time Terry has opened his own studio in Bradpole where visitors will be able to see his work which features a new collection of paintings highlighting the Dorset coastline together with a selection of his work over the past years.

His studio will be open from 11am -6.00 pm everyday during the two week event May 29th - June 13th) except Tuesday June 1st and Monday June 7th.

Terry is President of Lyme Regis Arts Society and recently designed the logo for Bridport Transition Town and the 27 metre 'Spirit of Wimborne' mural for the town's centre Landlords: Beware of hidden charges!

"DUE to so much legislation being implemented, letting agents are finding their job far more labour intensive," says Lucy Clinch of Symonds and Sampson Lettings and Property Management.

"Subsequently, many other letting agents are having to charge additional fees to maintain their profit margins.

"For example, deposit registration, higher tenancy agreement fees, administration fees for organising contractors, renewal fees for both landlord and tenant; the list can be endless!'

Symonds and Sampson have purposefully left their terms and conditions totally straight forward, with no hidden charges along the way, even though they are working harder for landlords and tenants.

What we quote you is what you'll pay.

Remember, it costs nothing to change your managing agent if you are unhappy with the service that you are currently receiving.

Symonds and Sampson have over 20 years' experience in achieving good, consistent levels of rent with happy landlords and tenants and manage over 500 properties throughout Dorset, Somerset and Devon.

Our ARLA trained staff have a waiting list of tenants looking for property in and around Bridport.

If you would like more information on the services we can offer, or would like to arrange a free market appraisal, please contact Lucy Clinch or Richard Chubb on 01308 459 565. Information can also be found at www.symondsandsampson.co.uk.

■ SITUATED on the western side of the village of Charmouth is the individual and detached property known as 'Westside'. Built in the late 60s/early 70s and constructed of Portland stone under a pitched and tiled roof, Westside has been extensively refurbished and extended to a high specification by the present owners and offers very versatile living accommodation.

The garage has the potential to convert into a self-contained annexe/studio. Standing in its own south facing gardens, the property takes full advantage, both inside and out, of the magnificent views across the Marshwood Vale and the coastal stretch along Lyme Bay to Portland Bill.

So...No More HIPs!

What does this mean? Well, for the past 2 years anyone who wanted to sell a property had to pay out around £300 to get a Home Information Pack before an agent could begin marketing. The new coalition government has suspended HIPs with a view to abolishing them, so this outlay will no longer be necessary. However, it is important to remember that you will still need an Energy Performance Certificate to sell your home. An Energy Assessor will need to visit the property to make an energy and environmental report but as an agent, we can begin marketing your property immediately and this report can follow within 28 days. The important thing to the seller, is that the cost of this is much more affordable – just £75 + vat. If you are thinking of selling and want some honest advice, please call us!

ADVERTISEMENT SALES EXECUTIVES

£15,000-£18,000 (depending on experience) plus commission -(OTE £18,000 to £20,000 per annum)

We currently have vacancies for Advertisement Sales Executives to join our expanding portfolio of weekly community newspapers based in Lyme Regis. The role will involve working as part of a team selling advertising on the telephone and Applicants should have previous sales experience, not necessarily in publishing, and be of smart appearance. We are looking for highly motivated and enthusiastic individuals with an acceptable level of written presentation, spelling and numeracy with keyboard skills and a full, valid driving licence. The successful candidates will be able to identify and target new business whilst maximising the spend of existing clients. They will produce effective advertising copy and feature ideas that generate response for the client. They will require excellent communication and negotiation skills, be able to remain calm under pressure and deliver an acceptable standard of service to our customers.

In return, we offer a good basic salary with commission, five weeks annual leave and excellent working conditions in a friendly environment.

If you think you have what is needed to fill one of the above roles, send your CV and covering letter to Philip Evans, Publisher, Lyme Media & Events Ltd., at the address below or e-mail to philip@pemedia.co.uk For an informal chat about the roles, telephone 07796 951991. Less than six months since its launch in January, the new Volkswagen Transporter, with a new look and more powerful, fuel-efficient and refined Euro5 TDI two awards, while Volkswagen's third award was won by its largest van model, the

The two awards for the new Transporter, which also celebrated 60 years of production in February, are Best Medium Van in the Van Fleet World 2010 Honours, and as the Standard Panel Van category winner in the iVan Awards 2010.

Van Fleet World magazine's judging panel included an assessment of maintenance costs and reliability and residual value data for the new Transporter. The magazine's edi-John Kendall. concluded: 'A good van before and now even better after the extensive revisions. A fine range of engines, great build quality and better to drive than before. The latest Volkswagen Transporter has a lot going for it.' Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles was also pleased to receive a second award in the Van Fleet World 2010 honours when for the fourth year running the Volkswagen Crafter was awarded the title of Best Large Van.

Commenting on Crafter's record achievement, Editor John Kendall said: 'The Crafter has taken this award for the last few engines out in the past year. it does much to consolidate the van's position. Crafter range has much to offer on all counts. Not surprisingly, they have become firm fleet favourites.

Simon Elliott, Director, Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles said: 'We are really pleased that the new Transporter is already proving to be so highly valued by both the fleet experts judging these awards, and our customers - and for the Crafter to win Best Large Van for the fourth year running proves that it's hard to beat ' For more information of the Volkswagen Commercial Vehicle van range, and www.volkswagen vans.co.uk or call 0800

Unichip boosts the performance of the 'indestructible' Toyota Hilux 3.0-litre D4D

VERSATILE, reliable and deemed to be 'indestructible' by BBC's Top Gear, the 3.0-litre D4D 4x4 Hilux is a justifiably popular sight on British roads. However, few would argue that with a pedestrian 0-60mph time of 12 seconds and a 105 mph top speed, the 1830 kilo Toyota could benefit from a power boost, but the problem, until now, is that the Hilux has been viewed as 'unmappable, using traditional OBD based methods.

Happily, electronics expert Unichip Europe has now launched a new Uni-O upgrade for the Toyota, designed to put a spring into the Hilux's step. Manufactured in South Africa, the Uni-Q is the world's leading piggyback ECU, enabling tuners to refine and increase performance of any petrol or diesel vehicle.

For the Toyota Hilux application, Unichip Europe has developed an off the shelf 'U-Connect' wiring loom, so that customers can easily install the Uni-Q unit on a DIY basis in a matter of minutes. The Hilux 3.0 D4D Uni-Q comes pre-programmed with the specially developed ECU map settings for fuelling and turbo boost settings, making for an easy and quick performance enhancement proposition – it's simply a case of 'plug, play and drive away.'

And on the 3.0 D4D Hilux the results are impressive, with peak power increasing from a measured 155 bhp to 184 bhp at 3500 rpm. Maximum power is only half of the story though because for a car that's often used for towing or off road work, peak torque jumps by 40 lb.ft from a dyno tested 254 lb.ft to 295 lb.ft at just 3000rpm.

On the road this transforms the in gear acceleration and flexibility of the 3.0-litre D4D Toyota Hilux, endowing it with improved driveability, superior overtaking abilities and more driver enjoyment, all for a comparatively modest outlay.

Suitable for all Toyota Hilux 3.0-litre D4D models produced from 2005 onwards and carrying part number PPTOY15.1, the U-Connect package is available now directly from Unichip Europe or from one of 28 Unichip dealers across the United Kingdom, priced at £465.30 including VAT @ 17.5%.

Seat's bank holiday bonanza for used car buyers

THIS Bank Holiday weekend (29-31 May), SEAT is offering used car customers a suite of tempting deals on some of the Spanish brand's most desirable models.

For three days only the sporty Spanish outfit is making available selected, pre-owned Exeo saloon 2.0 TDI SE models from just £15,250 with two years' free servicing and low rate finance. Meanwhile, selected used Ibiza 1.4 SE and Sport models will be offered with a great, low rate finance deal of just 4.9% APR - subject to status, conditions apply.

The high profile campaign, which is being promoted via extensive national radio and online advertising, is being run at participating dealerships nationwide and means buyers in search of nearly new bargains need look no further than their nearest SEAT garage.

Of course even without the great finance and free servicing offers, the exceptional value presented by the SEATs is clear. The upper medium segment Exeo 2.0 TDI SE 143 PS, for example, comes packed with standard-fit kit. Among the hi-tech goodies to be found in the car are: Bluetooth mobile phone connectivity, dual zone climate control, alloy wheels, one-touch electric windows all round; height and reach adjustable multi-function steering wheel; AM/FM radio/CD player; Aux-in connection; USB port; ABS; ESP + EBA; six airbags with front seat passenger airbag deactivation; remote central locking with deadlocks; volumetric alarm with back-up horn and tilt sensor and electronic engine immo-

Likewise, the Ibiza 5dr 1.4 Sport is both generously specified and well built. Standard equipment includes 16" alloys; sports suspension and sports seats; leather steering wheel and gearknob; air conditioning; electric windows all round; six-speaker radio/CD player with steering column-mounted controls; ABS; speed-sensitive power assisted steering; rev counter; driver, front passenger and front head/thorax side airbags (with passenger-airbag deactivation switch); remote central locking and height adjustable driver and passenger seats.

Explaining the thinking behind the event, SEAT UK Used Car Manager David Ardern said: 'The appeal of all Approved Used SEAT models is clear, but with the addition of these limitedtime finance and servicing offers on selected models I believe we're making the cars pretty much irresistible!

The SEAT Exeo, for instance, has already made a great impression with demanding fleet and business drivers while the Ibiza remains the mainstay of the SEAT range and, undeniably, one of the most desirable superminis on our

He added: 'Our dealers are gearing up for a very busy weekend!'

No deposit & no interest rate with Citroën contract motoring's new Elect3 pro LCV offers

CITROËN Contract Motoring's (CCM) innovative Elect3 Pro LCV finance scheme now includes new 0% finance deals on all Berlingo and Relay models, and selected Nemo and Dispatch models - with enhanced deposit contributions of up to £3,500 from Citroën

During May and June, these new customer incentives are designed to make the financing of new Citroën LCVs an even more affordable proposition.

Elect3 Pro provides many of the benefits of a contract hire agreement and makes acquiring new Citroën commercial vehicles an even more affordable proposition.

Charles Peugeot, Head of CommercialVehiclesand Business Sector, commented, "During May and June, Citroën Contract Motoring's already very attractive Elect3 Pro plan has been further improved, to bring the benefits of a new Citroën LCV to a wider range of small busi-

Thanks to its unique structure, the innovative Elect3 Pro scheme typically provides lower monthly payments. Elect3 Pro requires the customer's monthly payments just to fund the balance of the vehicle's cost remaining after deducting the deposit and the Guaranteed Future Value (GFV), which is based on the customer's chosen mileage band. The customer then effectively pays just the difference, with fixed monthly payments.

During May and June, with Citroën's enhanced deposit contributions of up to £3,500, the customer will pay a deposit of only the VAT amount or a significantly reduced sum, dependent on the LCV model selected.

In addition, during May and June, all Berlingo and Relay models acquired on Elect3 Pro schemes attract 0%

Renault announces new Megane Coupe-Cabriolet UK pricing and specification

- New Mégane Coupé-Cabriolet range available to order 4th June prior to showroom launch on 9thJuly, priced from £21,595 onthe-road
- High core specification level includes: 17" alloys, Bluetooth, panoramic electric glass folding roof, fixed glass wind deflector, hands free keycard and fully integrated Carminat TomTom satellite navigation
- Six engine and transmission combinations available, including new EDC (Efficient Dual Clutch) automatic transmission with 1.5 dCi 110 engine and frugal, yet responsive 1.4 TCe 130
- Two trim levels: Dynamique TomTom and GT. New GT versions feature choice of 2.0 turbo-charged 180hp petrol engine or 2.0 dCi 160 diesel, together with exterior and interior styling enhancements
- GT Line option pack available on lower-powered engines with GT interior and exterior styling for £1,290

FOLLOWING the recent launch of its new GT models, Renault is now completing the New Mégane family by confirming UK pricing and specification for the Coupé-Cabriolet, the stylish finale to the range.

Unveiled at the Geneva Motor Show earlier this year, the svelte new drop-top comes in a choice of two trim levels, Dynamique TomTom and GT, priced from £21,595.

The elegant new model is available with a comprehensive range of six engine and transmission combinations, two of which are reserved solely for the flagship GT versions. Among the additions are the new EDC (Efficient Dual Clutch) automatic transmission, available exclusively with the 1.5 dCi 110 engine, which, at 130 grams per kilometre, gives the lowest emissions of any automatic versions in its class with a folding hard-top. Also debuting in the four-seater is the responsive, yet frugal 1.4 TCe (Turbo Control efficiency) 130 engine. The third petrol engine in the line-up is the 2.0 CVT 140, while the Dynamique TomTom powertrain options end with the 1.9 dCi

The two-version GT range is exclusively offered with the potent two-litre TCe 180 petrol engine or the high-torque, twolitre dCi 160 diesel powerplant.

In keeping with the car's style, Coupé-Cabriolet comes with a high level of specification, including an electric panoramic folding glass roof as standard, to give the feeling of freedom whether the top is up, or down.

Core equipment on the four Dynamique TomTom versions includes 17" alloys, 4x15W radio CD with Bluetooth and AUX input, air conditioning, automatic headlights and wipers, panoramic glass folding roof, cruise control, fixed glass wind deflector, hands free keycard, speed limiter and fully integrated Carminat TomTom satellite navigation.

Upgrading to the sporty new GT gives greater on road presence through a series of interior and exterior styling enhancements. On the outside, the topof-the-range versions are immediately distinguishable through their bespoke sport front bumper with revised central air intake and gloss black detailing, and rear bumper with aerodynamic diffuser.

They also benefit from a dark chrome surround for the windscreen frame and waistline, with matching door mirrors, door handles and front fog lights. Rounding off the stylish accoutrements are 18" alloy wheels and headlights with black surrounds.

The flagship model's sport theme continues on the inside with 'GT' sports seats, aluminium-faced pedals, an analogue rev-counter and polished carbon interior door pull handles, outer air-vents and dashboard trim including GT badging. GT versions also boast rear parking sensors and electric folding door mirrors.

Optional equipment includes metallic paint (£405, including Malta Blue for GT versions), Dual Zone climate control (£410), heated front seats (£305), leather upholstery (£920), bixenon headlamps (£665), Carminat TomTom satellite navigation (£460), Arkamys 3D Sound radio with multifunctional TunePoint (£360) and removable wind deflector (£150).

The new GT Line pack recently announced across the rest of the Mégane range is also available on the Dynamique Tomversions Coupé-Cabriolet for £1,290. This includes specific 17" alloy wheels, electric folding door mirrors, rear parking sensors, and front and rear sport bumpers. The interior also benefits from the same enhancements as the GT models, with GT Line badging.

UK drivers go colour-blind at traffic lights

MORE than half of all drivers don't know the traffic light sequence, research by the UK's largest online used car retailer. Autoquake.com, has revealed.

Autoquake asked 1000 drivers to name the signal after amber. Just under half (48%) correctly chose red. Worryingly, nearly four out of ten (39%) thought an amber light was about to change to green. Almost one in ten (7%) expected a green and amber signal next, while 6% thought red and amber would appear.

"We're surprised that so few drivers remember the traffic light sequence correctly," said Autoquake.com's CEO, Dermot Halpin. "It's amazing that so many drivers think an amber signal is about to change to green when in fact it will change to red! Drivers should remember that an amber light means stop unless it is unsafe to do so. As pedestrians we're worried that so many drivers expect to see a green and amber signal since this doesn't exist!"

Autoquake.com's research revealed some big differences between the regions. The East Midlands led the way, with 64% of drivers correctly choosing red as the next light in the sequence. 61% of drivers in East Anglia answered correctly, as did 58% in Northern Ireland.

Welsh drivers were most disappointing, with only 40% expecting red to follow amber. Just 45% of Scottish drivers answered correctly.

"In central London, there are 2.4 personal injury accidents per year* at traffic signals," said Halpin. "With so few drivers knowing the correct traffic light sequence, perhaps this is one of the reasons

The first traffic lights were installed outside the Houses of Parliament on 10 December 1868. Semaphore-style arms were used in the day and gas lights at night. However, less than a month after being installed a gas lantern exploded. The more modern electric traffic light is an American invention and was first installed in Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1912.

Tuesday, May 18th

SOUTH Petherton, top scorers in the entire league, paid the penalty for failing to take a several good first-half chances as they were held to a goal less draw at Ilminster Town Reserves. Although Ilminster failed to score for the sixth game in a row they did at least end a miserable run of seven straight defeats.

Goals from Adam Caddy (2), Jason Hawker and Tom Bond earned Lyme Regis a comfortable 4-0 win over Merriott Rovers in what could sadly turn out to be their last ever visit to Newchester Cross such is the perilous situation regarding the well-documented off field problems for one of the League's oldest clubs.

DIVISION ONE

AFTER Upsetting the West & Middle Chinnock apple cart just 48 hours previously resurgent Lyme Regis Reserves were at it again at Bakers Field on Tuesday evening.

All seemed to be going to plan for hosts Winsham United, who led 2-0 through Dave Hurley and Stuart Richards at the break.

But The Seasiders showed no sign of relinquishing an impressive end of season run that has now vielded 16 points from a possible 24 as they stormed back to win 3-2.

Neal Baker started the comeback one minute after the restart before Ally Rattenbury leveled. The winner came ten minutes from time when Darren Poole crashed home a superb surprise victory as they led Ilminster Town Colts 3-1 midway through the second-half through Julian Davies, Lee Dowle and an own goal.

But with Davies forced off with an arm injury, the West Dorset side were down to 10-men and caved in to goals from Luke Lazenby, Matt Wood, Nick Whaites, Danny Whaites and an

CONGRATULATIONS go to Farway United who moved top and clinched an immediate return to the Premier Division with a point from a 4-4 draw with Ilminster Town Colts at Eastlee

A double each for James Salter and Bradley King saw the Devonians cruise into a 4-1 lead at the interval. But Colts turned on the style after the restart and were well worth their point with goals from Luke Lazenby, Johnny May, Nick Whaites and Adam

The destination of the title is still to be decided. West & Middle Chinnock remain in the running after a 2-0 win over Lyme Regis Reserves.

Damon Hallett took his goal tally into double figures with a cracking opener before the interval.

Top scorer lan Masters made the points safe with his 32nd midway through the second-half.

DIVISION TWO

BEAMINSTER Reserves ended the season with a fine 4-2 win over Dowlish & Donvatt at the Memorial Ground.

The Rainbows, who finish in a creditable fourth place, came from behind to bet the Stripes 4-2.

Ross Pickett scored twice and their were singles for half-time substitutes Nick Cowie and player-manager Robin Ormsby who fittingly roundedoff the season with a late fourth.

PYMORE were on the wrong end of a 10-2 hammering at promoted West & Middle Chinnock

Goals from Nathan Dennett and Brandon Scadding had Pymore level at one stage at 2-2, but the hosts romped home to their biggest ever PSL win and the visitors headed off to Division Two.

A depleted Netherbury side completed an encouraging season with a 6-0 reverse at champions-elect Farway United.

Monday, May 24th DAISY HUTCHINGS SEMI-FINAL

LYME Regis Reserves are through to the Daisy Hutchings Cup Final after a gutsy penalty shoot-out victory over favourites Farway United at the Davey

The Devonians dominated the first hour and appeared to be heading for a showdown with West & Middle Chinnock tomorrow (Thursday) evening as they led through a firsthalf Darren Cooke goal. But Fred Thomson nodded home

Darren Poole's cross to level in the 80th minute. Within a 60 seconds Farway were back in front as Stuart King was penalised for a trip and Ben Williams tucked away the resulting penalty.

Lyme responded again and Thomson bagged his second after brave work from substitute Mark Taylor.

The sides couldn't be split in the extra half-hour and Lyme edged home 5-4 in the spot-kick lottery.

Lyme Regis Bowls

Lyme halt high-flying Dorchester A MIXED bag of results for the Club this week, both in the league games as well as the friendlies. The A and B teams went down to Greenhill A and Portland B.O. respectively whilst the Championship side put a stop to Dorchester's winning ways with a covincing eight point victory.

In the Percy Baker only W2 managed a win, a convincing thrashing of Bridport on their own turf. W1;W3 & W5 all went down to Bridport;Portland B.O & Portland B.O respectively.

The ladies have lost in both the league and the Edna Paisley this week, let's hope my comments of last week haven't put the 'mockers' on their ambitions for this season.

In the friendlies the Club managed wins against Bridgwater Victoria Park and Chard but contrived to lose against a pretty strong team playing under the 'South Dorset Bowls Association' umbrella

BUCCANEERS END WILDCATS' RECORD

National League Challenge WEYMOUTH WILDCATS 41 BOURNEMOUTH BUCCANEERS SELECT 49

WEYMOUTH Weyline Wildcats succumbed to a makeshift Bournemouth Buccaneers Select side on Friday evening which ended their unbeaten run on home shale. They suffered a big blow when skipper James Cockle failed to arrive after breaking down on his way to the Wessex FM Raceway resulting in this year's rookie Luke Wilt-shire being drafted into the team.

Wildcats No 1 Byron Bekker just missed out on a maximum, dropping a single point in his 17 point tally to former Wildcat Brendan Johnson in the first heat which was re-run after a horrifying crash on the first turn. Another ex-Wildcat Kyle Newman guesting for the Buccaneers was the unlucky victim.
Wiltshire in only his second meeting for the Wildcats locked up from the inside of turn one, Johnson and Bekker were away but the unfortunate Newman with nowhere to go smashed into Wiltshire's back with his front wheel and somersaulted both man and machine through the air into the safety fence.

A lengthy delay followed while Newman who has qualified as second reserve for the World Under-21 Championship semi-final at Landshut, Germany, on June 26th received medical attention before being placed on a spinal board as a precautionary measure. The trip to Dorchester hospital has since revealed no broken bones after original fears of a neck injury. The battered and bruised Newman, who is due to star for Newport Hornets next Friday against the Wildcats was released to go home in the early hours of Saturday morning.

The Buccaneers lead was up to six points after two heats; Bekker took his first win in heat three with Gary Cottham backing up his team mate for the only 5-1 of the evening reducing the gap to two points. Cottham lowered Johnson's colours in heat 5 with Andrews slotting in third to level the scores at 15-15.

Heats 6 and 7 were shared evenly with Bekker again winning heat 6 and Terry Day heat 7. Bournemouth moved ahead ending the deadlock between the sides with Johnson, who top scored for the visitors with 11 points, winning heat eight and Aaron Baseby packing in for the Buccs second 5-1 putting them four points clear.

Heat nine saw Terry Day and another ex-Wild cat James White-Williams tumble at the first turn. Both riders were ok to take part in the rerun heat where Daniel Halsey took the win from Cottham and White-Williams limping over for third with a puncture, with Day being forced to retire also suffering a puncture while challenging Halsey for the lead.

Bekker again took the chequred flag for his third win with Buccs pairing ex-Cat Karl Mason and Mark Jones packing in the minor places. Johnson also took his third win in the re-run heat 11 unaware of all the action behind him between as Andrews held off Baseby for second place. Andrews and Day had slid out in the first running with referee Christina Turnbull exclud-ing the Weymouth rider as the cause of the stop-

Cottham took his second win of the evening helping him to an impressive 12 paid 13 tally, fighting off the challenge from Jones who tried every line available to pass. Bekker followed with another win in heat 13 giving the Cats a 4-2 heat advantage but the Buccs hit back with Mason re-turning the favour to win the meeting for the Ruccs with Raseby in third Bekker topped off a fine individual 17 point display by taking the win in the re-run final heat on a fairly flat track with smallish following a first turn tumble. Bekker was on a fences, but this year they have built real mission for the win, finding a way past them up and so it was a good test," Mason and Halsey.

The Wildcats require help on race days. If you are fit and able, several places are vacant for bike pushers and track rakers. For further information please contact Martyn Hepworth via email hep-pie@breathe.com or call 07799 806428.

Ox's swept aside

AFTER a comprehensive victory over Ox fordshire on Sunday in the MCCA Trophy to ensure them qualification, Dorset County Cricket squad has been drawn against Wiltshire in the quarter-final draw to be played at Dean Park on Sunday, June 13th.
The victory at Redlands, Weymouth meant Dorset were the only unbeaten side in their group stage, and boosted their chances of reaching their second final in four years to be played at Durham's River-

Rick Banham put the skids under the Ox-fordshire innings after visiting skipper lan Hawtin had won the toss and decided to Banham claimed three wickets in three overs after Matt Metclafe had started the ball rolling by getting Chris Sandbach caught by Chris Park. He ripped through the top order and with Damien Shirazi having to retire, Oxfordshire found themselves at 21-5 after just nine overs.

They staged a recovery with useful knocks from Watling (34), Taylor (15) and Hawtin (26) who were all victims of Chris Morgan (3-29), with Banham mopping up the tail to record the excellent figures of 5-19 off 9.4 overs to dismiss the visitors for just 115.

Dorset struggled in their early reply with Chris Jones (0), Nick Park (8) and Glyn Treagus (0) all succumbing to the bowling of Rowe to leave them in trouble at 13-3.

However a fourth wicket partnership of 79 between Aaron Williams (18no) and Darren Cowley (52) set up the victory. Cowley's excellent half century off just 39 balls included eight fours and two sixes.

Manager Sean Walbridge said: "Once again, our bowling line-up performed bril-liantly, so we are over the moon with that. We held all our catches again and if we keep doing that we'll give ourselves every chance to do well in this competition."

BOB BUCKLER RACING

QUALITY NOT QUANTITY spot for anglers

WITH only a handful of horses preferring the firm summer ground, Bob Buckler's stable is relatively quiet.

However, despite only having two runners in the last week, both acquitted themselves well in finishing second in their races.

Cullahill was having his first run over fences in the Dinner In The Severn Restaurant Beginners' Chase at Worcester. The eight-year-old is well thought of at home and after a nervous start under Harry Skelton settled down to run a good race.

"He's not the bravest horse, and if he were human would have wanted a gin and tonic to settle him before the race, but after a couple of tentative fences he settled and jumped pretty well particularly as the fences at Worcester are now fairly big. It used to be that you gave a horse a first outing at Worcester on a fairly flat track with smallish said Buckler.

Although well beaten into second place, the winner Baddam (6/4fav) is a class horse just coming back into form. The former flat horse won the Queen Alexandra Stakes at Ascot as a fouryear-old and converted to jumps two years ago.

Skelton brought Cullahill home well ahead of third placed Orchard King with the well fancied Jonjo O'Neill trained Another Trunp with A P McCoy

The very reliable River Indus looked to have the Glazerite South West Division Handicap Chase at Towcester in his pocket as he cruised to the front at the top of the hill before turning for home, but Lucky Luk, who looked beaten, found some extra to snatch

"At the top of the hill he looked as if he had the field beaten, and so Daryl (Jacob) checked him a bit to ensure he wasn't out in front too long. But he must have thought he had done his bit and switched off and then couldn't respond when the other horse went for home."

Both horses are likely to have one more run, Cullahill at Towcester or Worcester and River Indus at Fontwell, before being turned away for the summer, although Cullahill is only likely to get a short holiday as he prefers good ground and will be back in action

LYME REGIS GOLF CLUB

LYME TRIO EXCEL AT HOME IN COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

with Steve Percival

County Championship event

LYME Regis were hosts for the 2010 County Amateur Championships from Friday 21st

With the forecast for the hottest weekend so far this year, the three days of competition was forecast to be both a physical as well as a mental challenge for those taking part in the 36 hole Stroke Play, Garrett Salver, competition.
The field had some well known names along with a few new comers and with a course presented to the players in excellent condition, thanks to the efforts of David Everrett and his greenkeeping team, and little wind there was every opportunity for the players to score well.

Players soon got into their stride and birdies were the order of the day. The pressure was on the home players to play well and in the morning they didn't disappoint with Roger Seed from Lyme Regis, leading the way with a 1 under 70.

Although the local participants were not necessarily expected to reach the final stages of the event, the Lyme trio of David Fidge, Matt Searle and Roger Seed all acquited themselves well by winning through the first days qualifying round to enter the main competition.

Unfortunately David Fidge and Roger Seed were drawn against each other in the first round and, Roger, suffering from a nig-gling knee injury and having already had an early start after only four hours sleep because of work commitments, was not really able to compete effectively against his Lyme counterpart.

However, he did have the consolation of winning the over 35 event for the best score in the qualifying round. David meanwhile found the competition a little too fierce in the second round and failed to reach the third day of the competition. Similarly Matt Searle also made an early exit from the mainn competition.

The eventual winner of the main competiton, the Garrett Salver, was Kevin Robinson of Yeovil. Further details of the event are available on the Dorset Golf Union Web site.

Seniors Open Event

IN blazing sunshine and with fairways and greens still fast and true Lyme Regis Golf Club staged their ever popular Spring Seniors Open event on Monday, May 24th.

With a maximum field of 160 competitors he event was, as ever, over subscribed and featured a reserve list of 40 standing by to take up any last minute vacant places. Played as a 4 ball better ball stableford competiton off 3/4 handicap, and with individual prizes also on offer, the competition was fierce throughout the day.

The eventual winners of the team competiton were Mike Joslin and Roger Pollock from Bridport with an excellent 44 points. Narrowly beaten into second place were Mike Brake and Terry Kearley, also from Bridport with 43 points who beat Trevor King and Reg Covington (Henbury and Long Ashton) into third place.

Other results were - Best Front Nine; D Edmondson and J Beer (Taunton and Pickeridge) Best Back Nine; J Townsend and Dieter Ritz (Sidmouth) Nearest the Pin on the eighth hole; Barry Doddington (Teignmouth) Nearest the Pin on the 18th hole; Ken Robinson (Bigbury). There were also 12 "2s" scored on the day.

Lyme Regis Ladies with Ellie Langford

Stableford and Centenary Sword 20th May 2010

EXCELLENT playing conditions and very good greens led to a flurry of birdies and some very respectable scores in Thursday's competition.

Results: Division One: 1, Rion Culpan 35pts; 2, Francis Sell 35pts ocb; 3, Anita Holms 34 pts. Division Two: 1, Gilly Madill 40pts; 2, Brenda Brown 37pts, 3, Angela Clark 37pts ocb. Division Three: 1, Hanna Jacobsen 40pts; 2, Emma Davies 39pts; 3, Daphne Baker 31 pts.

There were handicap reductions for Julia Collins 21 to 20, Gilly Madill 22 to 20, and Hanna Jacobsen 34 to 31.

A few ladies qualified to play in the Centenary Sword which was won by Diane Smith with a score of 34pts, she now goes through to final where she plays the winner of the men's competition.

The Cobb is top

THE COBB at Lyme Regis proved to be the most productive spot for the latest Andy Neal Rover (May 15th), with all but one of the winners having fished from there.

Seventeen members signed on and fished from a number of venues including West Bay, West Bexington and Burton Bradstock, but it was Dave Chidzoy fishing at The Cobb who won with a haul of 5kg 890g. Oliver Mears was second with 3kg 705g and Phill Maggs third with 2kg 215g. Dan Bristow with three won him the Most Species, and Heaviest Fish was Kim Hyett's dogfish weighing 670g.

The weather for the Junior Shore Festival next day at West Bay started well, but the sea roughened up and as a result only two of the nine competitors caught weighable fish.

Oliver Mears won the Festival Cup with 310g of fish with Adam Cullingford close behind on 285g.

NICHOLLS' CENTURY LIFTS MARTINSTOWN

Uplyme & Lyme Regis 147 all out lost to Yelverton 333 for 4 by 153 runs

UPLYME & Lyme Regis, still shorn of as many as six key personnel were put to the sword by Yelverton in the sunshine at the KGV playing field.

Batting first the visitors forged partnerships of 75, 38, 107 and 72 in compiling a daunting 300-4 off 46 overs with Tom Berry striking a superb 116. The youthful Uplyme attack toiled in the heat with Sam Challis, at first change, returning best figures of 2-58. The innings was held up by an injury to wicket keeper Rob Thom who was blooded by a delivery that burst through his gloves.

In reply, Thom still suffering, fell quickly but useful contributions from Mark Brimacombe (34) and Tim Daniel (29) took the score to 101 for 3. But when both departed the innings subsided to 147 all out in 35.2 overs.

East Devon 2nd XI C Division Uplyme & Lyme Regis 104 all out lost to Countess Wear 106 for 3 by seven wickets. UPLYME & Lyme Regis, batting first, recovered from the early loss of skipper Eddie Clarke for 4 as a fine 68 run partnership frm Dave Norman(40) and Mike Holding (46) elevated the score to 81 for 3.

But the appearance of slow bowler Dave Sapiccha took the game away from the visitors. The youngster removed both Norman and Holding on his way to a haul of 5-41 to tore through the Uplyme middle-lower order as they imped up to 104 all out in 45.2 overs Opener Martin Bovey appeared to be seeing his side through to a convincing victory before retiring hurt on 34. But it mattered little as the hosts cruised home. Pick of the Uplyme attack was Neil Price who returned respectable figures of 10.2-1-28-1.

Dorset Premier League

Dorchester 180 all out lost to Parley 181-6 by 4 wickets DORCHESTER let the chance of victory over reigning champions Parley slip away after reducing their visitors to 14-4 in reply to their modest total of 180 all out. Having had the fillip of victory over Weymouth the previous week in their first competitive match of a rain interrupted season, they looked to be heading for another important win.

However a superb unbeaten 61 from Raj Naik and an unbroken sixth wicket stand of 76 with Roshan Embalagama (46no) saw the champions home.

Dorchester skipper Martyn Richards won the toss and decided to bat, and it looked to be a good decision as Steve Gerety (37) and Pete Moxom (20) added 53 for the first wicket. Although Dave Maslen (5) was unable to follow his feat of last week, Paul Tweddle with a fine knock of 49, helped add 50 for the third wicket. Andy Mead (14) and Dave Herbert (19) helped keep the scoreboard ticking along, but the loss of four wickets without a single run being scored saw the county town slump from 172-5 to 172-9 as Matthew Stickland (4-23), Naik (3-34) and Summerson (2-31) helped restrict them to 180 all out.

Phil Morley (2-34) and Rob Waite (1-30) had Parley in all sorts of trouble early in their reply and at 14-4 it looked oddson that Dorchester would remain unbeaten.

But Naik, first with Samuel Collins (23) in a half century stand, S Reece (16) and finally Embalagama saw them home with eight overs to spare. Xenon Ellis (2-30) was the only other bowler to claim any wickets.

Richards whilst obviously disappointed was full of praise for Raik and Embalagama and said: "Raj Naik was absolutely tremendous on the day and full marks to him and Roshan.

We knew they had a number of inexperienced players in their side and with early pressure we could get at them, and Phil (Morley) and Rob (Waite) did that with some superb bowling backed up by excellent fielding. At 14-4 we should have gone on and won the game to be fair but Raj batted su-

All the bowlers did well with Andy Mead unlucky not to pick up a wicket despite bowling a cracking pace, whilst Xenon's (Ellis) pace and accuracy bothered them, and Pete MMoxom also did well.

"We really fell down in our batting, with some guys not going on to make big scores when they might have, and we knew 180 wasn't good enough really, although we gave ourselves a chance. However the team spirit is great and we look

Ferndown Wayfarers 137 all out lost to Weymouth 138-4 by 6 wickets WEYMOUTH finally got their season underway with this first victory against Ferndown Wayfarers.

It looked like top order frailty might be their undoing for the second week running when they struggled to 50-4 in reply to Ferndown's modest total of 137 all out, but an unbroken fifth wicket stand of 88 between Jim Ryall, with a scintillating 73 not out, and an unbeaten 32 from Will McKay steered them home to a six wicket win.

Although Michael Pearce accounted for Lee Dunhan (10) early on, a fine half century from opener D Elsworthy was the backbone of the Wayfarers innings and they found themselves well positioned at 102-4.

However Faraz Ulhaq, who finished with 5-34, dismissed Elsworthy for 56 and then removed three others in a dazzling spell that left the hosts struggling at 120-9 with only D Fill-ingham (23) and R Sellers (11) offering any resistance.

over, and with Dean Janaway (6), Andy Bray (6) and Dave Pearce (0) all failing, looked like they might struggle, but Ryall and McKay took charge and calmly steered them home with plenty of overs to spare

Broadstone 316-3 beat Beaminster 168 all out by 148 runs ON a scorching hot day and on a flat, dusty pitch, Broadstone won the toss and unsuprisingly decided to bat first. The experienced Paul Triniman and young Rob Wiltshire opened the batting and played cautiously against the new ball.

Paul Martin bowled sharply but was for once unable to take a wicket. Spinner Mark Barber was introduced early but was punished for bowling any loose deliveries, as Triniman continued his excellent record against Beaminster as he drove and pulled with immense power.

The openers put on an opening stand of 144 before skipper Ross Baker (1-40) finally made a breakthrough, bowling Wiltshire for 55 with a good ball that nipped back.

This brought Steve Leadbetter to the wicket, another Broadstone player who has scored stacks of runs against Beaminster in the past, and he and Triniman accelerated the scoring playing some brutal shots.

Debutant Mark Gough bowled a tidy spell of leg spin and kept it tight, but Triniman (102) reached his century before Andy Sherring had him caught and bowled. Beaminster wilted in the last 12 overs as Martin and Sherring were ruthlessly punished for bowling anything off line. Leadbetter finished unbeaten on 77 after Andy Sherring (2-62) took the wicket of Seymour (18) as Broadstone finished their innings on a massive 316-3.

The Beaminster players were understandably shattered at tea but regrouped and aimed to bat out the 50 overs and pick up batting points. Their innings was held together by Nick David who made a patient 40, and he put on 46 with Baker (13) before the partnership was broken when David was harshly adjudged to have been caught behind.

Gough (19) played some nice shots and Martin had some fun with Broadstone's spinners, hitting some aggressive boundaries before skying a catch to the boundary.
Unfortunately, with only David out of the top five able to handle the youthful, quick Broadstone bowling attack, the visitors were all out in the 45th over for 168 runs.

Weymouth 2nd 109 all out lost to Ferndown Wayfarers 2nd 110-3 by 7 wickets Skipper John Ryan was disappointed with his sides defeat to Wayfarers.

"On the first real good opportunity with a good, flat track, although a bit slow I would expect us to get in excess of 200 in a 50 over competition. In fairness after the loss of two quick wickets we were doing well at 70-2 with Kieron Womble and Simon Browne looking in control before Wayfarers introduced Dave Ballam, who is a very experienced and talented over-50's spinner and he just tore the heart out of us."

Ballam had Browne (14) stumped down the leg side off his third ball, before going on to claim 5-10 off six overs as Weymouth slumped to 109 all out. Womble with 35 held the innings together with only Puckett (10no) at the end scoring anything of consequence.

A unbeaten half century from Jim Stanton (56) was the cornerstone of the visitors reply as they reached their target in the 28th over.

Ryan gave a couple of the younger bowlers an opportunity in the closing overs and Charlie Allen distinguished himself by claiming 1-4 from his three overs.

Division Two

Branksome 135 all out lost to Dorchester 2nd by 137-4 by 6 wickets

DORCHESTER 2nd's third win of the season was fairly straightforward with skipper Ian Sibley guiding his side to a relatively easy 6 wicket victory.

Branksome, winning the toss decided to bat, but wickets fell at a fairly steady rate with Mike Peak (3-29) and Stuart Beasley (3-41) leading the charge backed up by Sibley (2-29) and a wicket each for youngsters Joe Power and John Legg.

Sibley, who carried his bat with 45 not out, and Nick Rowe (16) put on 37 for the first wicket before Beasley weighed in with 25 off 18 balls as Dorchester eased home with eight overs to spare.

Division Three

Poole Town 2nd 226-9 beat Bridport 196 all out by 30

BRIDPORT suffered defeat at Poole despite a magnificent innings of 94 from Dom Gape. The 15-year-old joined skipper Sam Good with the score on 70-3 and the two of them put almost a century stand to give their side a great chance of chasing down Poole Town's total of 226-9. Unfortunately none of the others could match their efforts and the last five wickets crashed with a series of poor shot selections.

Losing the toss, Bridport were asked to field in the hot conditions and on a very hard batting wicket that suggested a day for batsmen. Wes Lewis however picked up a wicket in each of his first two overs to leave the hosts on 14-2, but a third wicket century stand had Bridport chasing to every corner of the field as they made the best of the conditions. Eventually Ashley Parker broke the partnership with a long hop, and although Ashley Nicholls bowled a fabulous second spell that saw him grab four wickets and Chris Backhouse bagged a brace with his leg spin, Town posted a reasonable target of 226-9 in their allocation.

In reply they soon lost Luke King who was stumped trying to smash one out of the ground, and Duane Gay after getting in, perished the same way. With Liam Toohill also back in the pavilion it was left to Good and Gape to take the game to the Good who made an entertaining 40 himself said:"It was a magnificent innings from Dom. He really took them apart and I was happy to give him the single and just watch from the other end!

When Good was out nobody kept Gape company and Bridport finished 30 runs short.

"All the bowlers did their stuff. There was nothing you could really do if they hit them sweetly as the outfield was very fast. We dropped a couple of catches and lost concentration a bit towards the end, but unfortunately it was our batting that let us down with too many players selecting the wrong shot. Only Dom and I batted well which was disappointing.

Portland RT 208-6 lost to Martinstown 210-7 by 3 wick-

A MAGNIFICENT century from opener Ed Nicholls was the highlight of Martinstown's victory at Portland Red Triangle. Chasing a target of 208 he smashed 15 boundaries on his way to 111 from just 121 balls.

Earlier the islanders had set a reasonable score with a half century from Chris Leake (59) and contributions from Dave Adkins (27), Simon Barrett (22) and Simon Profitt (32).

Danny Dancer (3-42) and Matthew Camp (2-54) were the most successful visiting bowlers.

Nicholls dominated Martinstown's reply with main support from Henry Lewis (22) as they jumped back to joint leaders

Beaminster 2nd 177-6 lost to Broadstone 3rd 205-5 by 28 runs

SKIPPER Adam Herring won the toss and put Broadstone 3rds into bat. Beaminster started well, bowling tight but without any success. Broadstone gradually built their innings and increased the scoring heavily in the last 10 overs, eventually finishing on 205 for 5 off 45 overs.
Stuart Lindsay had the best figures with 2-30 off nine overs.

Joe Singleton 1-53 bowled well, and also had a superb direct hit run-out. Herring and Chris Rowsell took good catches in In reply the hosts batted well, but couldn't match Broad-stone's late push at the end of the innings and fell short by 28 runs, ending on 177 for 6 off 45 overs.

Rowsell batted brilliantly on his debut, making 48, coming in at number 4 and accelerating the innings well. James Ridd made 26, and Murray Legg 30.

Dean Hyett made a quickfire unbeaten 17, including a huge six off the last ball. It was disappointing to fall short of the target set, but good to pick up maximum batting points for the first time this season lost to Weymouth 3rd 205 all out by 46 runs Weymouth 3rd's maintained top spot with their second win of the season after a 46 run defeat of Puddletown.

Abbotsbury 131-9 lost to Blandford 3rd 132-6 by 4 wick-

Abbotsbury's run of defeats continued as their middle-order batting again failed to click.

Nick Kneebone (14), Gary Pittman (21) and, in particular, young Marcus Evans (31) got the Swans off to a good start, reaching 102 for the loss of three wickets, but this was not followed up and the rest of the innings relied on some trade mark leg side hoicks from Robin Potter (25) and a last-wicket stand between super-veterans Mick Lydford and Mick House which kept out the Blandford bowlers and just gained the third batting point for the home side. Baker (4-37) and Wigley (3–22) being the main successful bowlers.

The visitors set off at a great pace in pursuit of their target, with Waters hitting a whirlwind 60 including 2 sixes and 9 fours in only 12 overs. Grafton Straker with 4-44 was again the pick of Abbotsbury's bowlers, with House and Pittman picking up a wicket each.

Abbotsbury did manage a full 11 on the field this week, but the batting again failed to set a decent target for the bowlers to defend. However, the sunshine, the tea, and the excellent spirit in which the game was played, if not the final result gave a most pleasant afternoon to players and spectators.

Bridport 2nd 78-4 beat

Ferndown Wayfarers 4th 77 all out by 6 wickets

BRIDPORT 2nd's had a relatively easy win over 10-man Way farers. Skipper Will Good won the toss and put the visitors in and had immediate success when he held on to a catch at square leg off debutant Pete Bustin's second ball of the in-

Wickets fell steadily with Bustin's 5-36 the main beneficiary whilst Ali Tuck who opened with him went unrewarded for a good spell.

It was also a great day for 12-year-old leg spinner Jack Walk let who in his second game for the team produced superb figures of 2-19 from 7.4 overs as Wayfarers were dismissed for

Will Gape and Rob Condliffe (13) gave Bridport a good start by halving the required target, and although Idris Croft (3) and Mark Smith (6) perished along the way Gape (28no) saw them home to an easy victory.

Weymouth Longshots 176-9

lost to Dorchester 3rd 177-8 by 2 wickets

THE early top of the table clash between unbeaten league leaders Weymouth Longshots and Dorchester 3rds lived up to the expectation of a close encounter with Dorchester coming out on top with a thrilling two wicket victory at Redlands, Lloyd Mitchem hitting the winning run with only six balls to

An experienced home side won the toss on the hottest day of the year and unsurprisingly decided to bat. Experienced campaigners Eaton and Hardy batted very sensibly in the early overs both finding the boundary at regular intervals, passing the 100 run partnership in the 25th over.

The introduction of George Chubb (3-18) turned the game towards Dorchester and brought an immediate reward as he had Hardy (41) caught by Beer and two balls later England was bowled for a duck with the score on 109-2. A fine piece of fielding saw Lucas swoop to run out Hardisty (5) and when Chubb claimed the vital wicket of Eaton, caught behind by Quinton for 64, the Longshots had slumped to 121-4.

Panjalizaden and West added a quick fire 26 before they became two of three victims of 13-year-old spinner Sam Roles(3-60) whose final victim saw him take an incredible flying two handed return catch off his own bowling to dismiss Kellman;s something quite special. The Longshots innings drew to a close on 176 for 9 off their 45 overs.

The Dorchester response started badly when Kellman bowled Beer with an inswinging yorker for a duck with a sin-

Vice-captain Jae Miller (72) played the anchor role of the Dorchester innings, and it was Tom Cottrell who carried on his early season form reaching his fifty with an elegant drive to the mid on boundary. With the score on 92 leg spinner West trapped him leg before for 53.
Last weeks hero Chubb added fifty runs with Miller, but the returning Kellman (5-49) produced a devastating spell to take four wickets for only 19 runs in five overs including Chubb and Miller who was well caught on the mid wicket boundary by Biles. His score only included five boundaries but it was an intelligent innings and had looked like guiding Dorchester to a comfortable win with the score on 141-3

But the Longshots showed why they had been unbeaten and with Kellman's excellent bowling and some great catches from Hodge, West and England, the county town slumped to 168-8.

With nine runs required from the final two overs and the game finely balanced it was left to Mitchem and captain Pete Tucker to hit the final runs to claim an exciting two wicket victory with six balls remaining.

Division Eight

Martinstown 2nd 205 all out

beat Crewkerne 203-8 by 2 runs

Martinstown 2nd's recorded their first victory of the season with a thrilling two run victory over Crewkerne.

Batting first, Martinstown soon lost both openers but a disciplined and lengthy partnership between Sam Kershaw (61) and Tom Bracey (42) against accurate bowling formed the backbone of their innings. Mike Folland (36) and captain Liam Moss (24) upped the run rate enabling Martinstown to finish on 205. Craig Purchase (4-33) was the pick of the Crewkerne bowlers.

After their opening spells, Ben Wood and Declan Croft had pegged the visitors to only 24 runs but some strong hitting by Purchase (66) and J Gold (65) saw Crewkerne gain the upper hand.

However tighter bowling by Robin Fellow and, in particular, Gary Jessop (4-35) combined with improved Martinstown fielding set up a finish where six runs were needed from the last over. Crewkerne fell two short on 203 for 8, the difference between the two side being the astute captaining and leadership of Liam Moss.

Winton 2nd 213-8 beat Symene 114 all out by 99 runs

This was a poor performance by Symene against the top of the league. Indifferent bowling, abysmal fielding and a poor batting display by most of the team all contributed to the re-

Winton won the toss and decided to bat and made steady progress against some indifferent bowling that added 46 extras to the total, whilst the fielding wasn't helped by the outfield being the rugby pitch.

South African Marcel Grunschloss bowled well in his eleven overs taking 5-41, as did Colin Willcox who bagged 3-41 off 12 over, whilst Sam Challis's good opening spell went unre-

In reply Symene lost Nigel Toohill to the first ball of the innings, and whilst fellow opener Willcox batted 22 overs for his 35 he only found support from Phil Hawkins (19) with whom he shared a second wicket stand of around 40, and Grunschloss (17). Symene were soon dismissed for 114 off iust 32 overs.

Future looks bright despite despite

BRIDPORT SQUASH CLUB David Lloyd Ringwood 16pts Bridport 2nd 9pts

BRIDPORT would have been encouraged and have learned a lot despite this defeat to avery strong and tough Ringwood side. Considering it is the first season for three of the team, it augurs well for the future that they did so well (writes Roger Lewis).

Tony Cooke at one for Bridport had to battle hard in his match against Nico Hevnes and stuck to his task very well as the game ebbed and flowed. In the end it was the tight play of Heynes that got the better of Cooke who went down fighting to a 5/9, 9/7, 2/9, 0/9 de-

Robert Satchwell's counter attack proved too much for Robert Muir at two. The Ringwood players ability to counter attack any move by Muir saw him to a 9/1, 9/5, 9/6 victory.

Bridport's Steve Hodder was involved in a long match with Dave Pickford. Both players exhibited similar styles and right from the start they signalled their intentions that they would not give in easily.

This resilience ensured an exciting and tense tussle throughout but eventually it was Hodder's extra bit of tenacity in the latter part of the match that ensured him a well worked 9/2, 9/2, 5/9, 1/9, 9/0 victory.

Ed Mamanta is turning out to be a useful team member and this showed in his demolition of Lorraine Page. The number four's power play was just too 🖁 much for Page and he went through to record an easy 9/0, 9/5, 9/3 victory.

Undoubtedly the game of the match was between the number five's, Bridport's Paul Cross and the hosts Peter Trayler. It became a titanic struggle with Cross relying on his good length shots and varying his paly.

After some good squash from both players it was the variation in Trayler's game that wventually had the beating of Croass and he inched through to record a 9/7, 5/9, 9/1, 9/7, 5/9 score.

SHOOT-OUT AT THE FORT

win over Farway United on Monday evening has earned Lyme Regis football club yet another Cup final appearance.

The Reserves fought back twice with goals from Fred Thomson to force extra-time against the impressive East Devon outfit and will now take the field against West & Middle Chinnock at Perry Street tomorrow (Thursday) in their first Daisy Hutchings Cup Final for nine years.

Lyme were understandably due to field their Bantams in the Reserves' penultimate League game of the season at home to Ilminster Colts last night (Tuesday).

The final curtain comes down on what has been a remarkable season for the Seasiders at the weekend.

The first team will be presented with the Perry Street Championship on Saturday. Robin Townsend's treble winning side take on rivals South Petherton needing one point to create a new record points total for the league's top division. Lyme currently sit on 58 points, the same as the powerful Merriott Rovers outfit which ran away with the title back in 2003-04

But to add spice to the proceedings Petherton must win to pinch the runners-up spot from Beaminster, something that Pethy boss Karl Diment confirmed he and his players are "totally focussed on doing".

Meanwhile Lyme players, support-ers and officials will be heartened with the news that the manager has nailed his colours to the Seasiders mast for another season.

Townsend, in his first season in sole charge of the first team, led the squad to the treble of Premier Division, Challenge Cup and Coronation cup, told View Sport: "Why would I leave?

really enjoyed, it's a great club with a good spirit throughout the teams."

Townsend has previously been subject of an approach from Bridport FC with a view to running the third team at St Mary's. Lyme Regis Reserves follow their first team collegues at 4.30pm when they take on Thorncombe.
